Lives are at risk in detention and in jail. With the spread of coronavirus, choosing to disregard the natic to the well-documented lethal conditions of incarceration. The government can and should release all people from jail who are in for non-violent offenses.

The COVID-19 pandemic is a challenge for everyone, but especially for those locked up in prisons and j spaces, and the outcome is a public health disaster that affects us all, physically and ethically. Chicag epicenter of the outbreak, with the highest infection rate in the United States, with over 500 infected, 1

Please, for the sake of human life both within and outside the prisons, at the very least, release all thos non-violent offenses.
