

JUDITH E. HAMILL

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

May 2010 The John Marshall Law School to Present

Chicago, Illinois

Director of Government Relations: Coordinates, develops, and procures various federal, state, and private foundation funding. Has a one in four success ratio for grant and LOI applications. Wrote and received funding for: the Department of Justice Community Grant which provided funding for the Veterans Legal Support Center & Clinic and the alternative veterans' courts, the Chicago Mercantile Foundation grant to develop a legal journal concerning futures and derivatives, the Illinois Board of Higher Education (ICCAP) grant for capital improvements, private foundation challenge grants for the operation and construction build-out of the Veterans Legal Support Center & Clinic, an Illinois Equal Justice Foundation grant for an externship program in Mediation and a Community Development Block Grant for the Business Enterprise Law Clinic, and various small private grants, all of which have totaled more than $5,000,000. Authors supporting papers, work statements, and reports for various capital programs, including the John Marshall State Street development plan, the Arthur Goldberg ceremonial courtroom, and the 19 W. Jackson Building project as well as for the Annual Report. Previous title - Grant Administrator.

2009 - 2010 Department of Planning and Development

Cook County, Illinois

Grant Administrator: Coordinated, developed, and procured various federal, state, and local funding, including Community Development Block Grants (CBDG), Energy Efficiency Grant and Conservation Block Grants (EECBG), and federal stimulus package funding. Prepared and administered grant allocations; made presentations to the Cook County Board of Commissioners, contractors/vendors, HUD and various community and governmental advisory groups; conducted public hearings; coordinated submission of grant applications to state and federal government and related agencies. Awarded $38.5 million in funding including: a $10.3 million Emergency Disaster grant and a $12.7 million Energy grant.

1986-2004 Department of Aviation, City of Chicago

Chicago, Illinois

2002-2004: Acting Director of ID Badging Office (one year) and Acting Director of MIS (one year): Initiated numerous improvements, innovations, and quality control procedures to enhance effectiveness, efficiency, professionalism, and security in both offices. Coordinated procedures and made Department presentations to the "O'Hare Concessions Airport Retail Management Group" and the "O'Hare Airport Managers Association." Retired -- 29 years of City of Chicago service on February 29, 2004.

Member of following Department committees and working groups:

Strategic Planning	2002 ITS/Smart Technology
Project Development	Expedition Development
Technical Services	FACE Project

Automatic External Defibrillator Review Group
"Wings of Vision" Airport Chapel Board

Day-to-day responsibilities included:

- Management of external contracts, including Siemens and SDI
- Meeting with MIS contractors, including UNISYS
- Interfacing with City of Chicago BIS
- Appointed ITSC Director for Department by BIS/UNISYS
- Periodic internal staff meetings
- Meetings with Project Development Committee
- Directing internal audit of hardware/software inventory
- Overseeing redesign of ID Badging web site @ O'Hare.com
- Presenting new ID Badging processes to aviation contractors
- Overview of Fiber Optic Activity for O'Hare and Midway
- Preparing computer hardware cost estimates and MIS purchases
- Directing maintenance of wireless networks, troubleshooting computer hardware and software problems and MIS initiatives
- Competing Security Directive for airport fingerprinting
- Reviewing daily "No Fly" and "Selectee" lists for FBI submission
- Advising staff on TSA security directives and EHI applications

1995-2002: Staff - Chief Deputy Commissioner. Managed the "Kids on the Fly" Children's Museum. Coordinated film shoots at Chicago airports. Movies: Message in a Bottle, US Marshals, Home Alone III, My Best Friend's Wedding, The Jackal, Mercury Rising, Bounce, Unconditional Love, Brothers II (successful Russian film) and Flying (Cannes Film Festival nominee). Television shows: "ER", "Early Edition", "Cupid", and "Turks". Documentaries: "Behind Closed Doors" (Joan Lunden), "Extreme Machines (London Discovery Channel), "An Investigation into the 737" (Bill Curtis), "Chicago by L" and "Chicago Lakefront" (Geoff Baer, WTTW), and "The New Economy" (WGBH Boston)(interviewee).

1986-1995: Program Director and Director of Noise Abatement: Administered Department environmental program and directed aircraft noise monitoring systems for Chicago's airports. Applied City planning experience and initiated the noise abatement monitoring for Midway Airport; Managed sound-proofing of fifty (50) O'Hare-area and eleven (11) Midway-area schools; Reviewed and oversaw construction contracts, work and change orders. Appointed Secretary - O'Hare Advisory Committee pursuant to Federal Court Consent Decree. Authored: "O'Hare Part 150: Noise Compatibility and Planning Study".

Professional Presentations:

2002 ITS/Smart Technology Conference
Southwest Neighbors in Action
Suburban O'Hare Commission /O'Hare Advisory Committee
American Association Airport Executives (AAAE) (1993 Boston)
Federal Noise Commission 1991 (Ottawa, Canada)
California Department of Transportation (1992 San Diego, CA)
Various business, neighborhood, and community groups,
Harvard Club of Chicago and Chicago Chamber of Commerce

Foreman High School	Lakeview High School
Kelly High School	Mather High School
Oriole Park Grade School	Steinmetz High School
Sullivan High School	Von Steuben High School

EDUCATION

- 1982 Harvard Kennedy School
Master's Degree, Public Administration and Policy
Professors included Stephen Breyer, Michael Dukakis, and Robert Reich
Authored: "The Chicago Firefighter's Strike - A Critical Analysis"
 "Airline Deregulation and the Impact on Labor"
- 1979 University of Illinois
Master's Degree, Urban Planning and Policy
Authored: "Corporate Support for the Arts - 1977"
Co-authored: "A Survey of Arts and Cultural Activities in Chicago"
 "Chicago/Ashland Commercial Study - 1978"
- 1975 Roosevelt University, Chicago Musical College
Bachelor's Degree, Music - Education and Voice

PROFESSIONAL, CIVIC, AND COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Included in several editions of Who's Who of American Women.

Member: Chicago Women in Planning and Development, Chicago Women in Philanthropy, Chicago Bar Association Chorus. Former member: Chicago Women in Government Relations, Rogers Park Community Council (1987-1992); Chicago Symphony Orchestra, Junior Governing Board (1978-1985).

Volunteer/Community Service Activities: Regina Dominican High School -- "Black and White Gala", President's Brunch (2006-2015), MWRD environmental initiatives (2009); Norridge Marlins Swim Team (2001-2011); O'Hare School of Irish Dance Booster Club (2005-2010), "St. Eugene Players" (2004-2006); active involvement in local Democratic politics (40 years) and member Host Committee, 1996 Democratic National Convention; Community presentations: Regina Dominican High School and St. Pascal Grammar School (2006-2009); "Wings of Vision" Board member (2003-) and O'Hare Chapel Volunteer (2004-).

Awards: Received the Regina Dominican High School Martin de Porres Award (2010), the Polish and American Citizenship Club of Chicagoland Lifetime Achievement Award (2013), and the Archdiocese of Chicago Christifideles Award (2013).

Family Memberships: Abraham Lincoln Presidential Library and Museum (Springfield), Adler Planetarium, Art Institute, Chicago Historical Society, Field Museum of Natural History, Lincoln Park Zoo, Museum of Science and Industry, Shedd Aquarium, National World War II Museum (New Orleans), WTTW and WYCC public television.

Charitable Activities: Center for Enriched Living, Chicago Children's Museum, Circle of Friends, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Soaring Eagle Academy, local community/VFW annual children's Christmas party.