This is the opportunity to extend basic rights that renters in Evanston and 2 other cities benefit from, to over 245,000+ county-wide renters by creating safeguards against illegal lockouts, procedures for withholding rent until building problems are addressed, protections against unfair lease terms, preventing landlords from charging absurdly high late fees and security deposits, and more. Vote yes for these strong tenant protections which is a vote yes for a fairer rental landscape for all Cook County renters.

Neighbors for Affordable Housing proudly stands with 60+ organizations in support of the Residential Tenant Landlord Ordinance.

This ordinance is critical to ensure that all tenants in Cook County have procedures in place to protect themselves, including from harmful conditions in their homes. Some of the most important protections are those that protect tenant safety and health, especially in communities of color. This includes encouraging landlords to make repairs and fix harmful conditions.

Sadly, we've heard complaints from renters that they have experienced retaliation such as rent increases or even eviction notices when asking their landlord for basic repairs or to address code violations. This is unacceptable, and the Cook County RTLO will prohibit retaliatory conduct against a tenant who is asserting their rights.

It's also important to consider that this ordinance is not a new, unknown, or unfamiliar set of protections. Renters have had these rights for over 30 years in Chicago and the Chicago RTLO has been proven to protect them. We've had three decades of guidance and direction to support landlords' compliance. Questions about the law have been tested in the courts. We know it works.

We've seen the benefits. We've seen firsthand how it helps people navigate the system, and enable healthy and thriving communities. It's clear that Chicago's RLTO has not held back the housing market, and housing providers have not been driven away. The Chicago RLTO did not spell doom for the city, and an RTLO for suburban Cook County will not be any different.

And so the moment is here to take action to care for our communities. And let's remember that equity is one of Cook County's core values, and a strong RTLO is what equity looks like. It's what housing justice looks like. We make those words real when we pass ordinances like this.

For equity and justice in Cook County means consistent access to stable and secure housing. It means resources, rights and protections for everyone, but especially those most in need and who are most vulnerable.

That is why we need this ordinance. And we need it now. Thank you.

This as an equity issue in that people needing this in suburban Cook Co do not have the housing protections that people in Chicago have where an RTLO already exists. the proposed ordinance clarifies the roles and responsibilities for both renters and landlords—making the rental landscape easier and fairer to navigate for everyone. Forty-three percent of suburban Cook County households are renters, and more than 245,000 renter households live in Cook County communities that lack comprehensive landlordtenant laws. They lack protections to prevent:

- Taking away basic rights, such as the right to termination notices and jury trials
- Unreasonable fees, such as fees of $100 per month for late rent payments
- Illegal lock-outs
- Retaliation

For thirty years, renters living in Chicago, Evanston, and Mount Prospect have benefited from municipal ordinances defining basic landlord-tenant rights and responsibilities, and the rental markets in these communities have thrived.

South Suburban Housing Center (SSHC) is the regional fair housing and HUD-approved counseling agency serving the south and southwest suburbs of Chicago. I am writing you on behalf of our agency to ask for your support of the Cook County Residential Tenant Landlord Ordinance (RTLO, Item #20-3562), introduced by Commissioners Scott Britton and Kevin Morrison.

Our organization provides legal support to people experiencing discrimination and other forms of mistreatment in the housing realm. Currently, there is no comprehensive tenant-landlord ordinance covering our Cook County service area. Passing a strong countywide ordinance will increase stability for both renters and landlords by clarifying their roles and responsibilities to make the rental process easier and fairer to navigate.

We are also experiencing an influx of calls from renters in distressed housing situations because of COVID-19 income disruptions. These tenants require additional protections to allow them to sustain their housing threatened by pandemic circumstances beyond their control. The proposed ordinance will:

- Prohibit lease terms that waive the basic tenant right to notices, require renters to “confess judgment” without a trial, or allow landlords to charge exorbitant interest rates on late payment of rent
- Improve on procedures for renters to withhold rent until building condition problems are addressed
- Create a course of action to enforce renters’ rights not to be locked out and provide guidance on when landlord entry is permitted
- Require security deposits to be maintained separately and returned to renters, prohibit excessive security deposits, prevent landlords from renaming security deposits “move-in fees” so as to keep them, and set up penalties when security deposits are not returned

This law will also help further racial equity in Cook County. Black, indigenous, and people of color are disproportionately impacted by a lack of regulatory protections for tenant landlord engagement. The RTLO will be a positive step for racial justice, as well as strengthen our agency’s work towards achieving a unitary housing market that eliminates discrimination and fosters stable, long-term diverse communities.

Apoya la Ordenanza porque años atrás pase por dos experiencias, una fue que el dueño de la casa me dijo que mis hijos no podían usar la yarda que solo él, la otra fue que el dueño se metió a mi departamento y lo peor que llegó hasta el baño cuando yo estaba bañando dijo que llegó hasta allá porque tocó y no contesté. Y por eso mi esposo y yo decidimos comprar una casa, la cual fue con mucho sacrificio pero todo para que mis hijos tuvieran un lugar donde jugar y tener privacidad.

Apoyo la Ordenanza porque cuando yo rentaba el dueño no tenía la calefacción a la temperatura que se supone que tiene que estar y aparte no limpiaba las escaleras de la nieve en el invierno. Progress Center is the Center for Independent Living that serves Suburban Cook County. Our mission is to equip people with disabilities with the tools to be independent in integrated community settings. One essential tool to independence is housing. Whether disabled or non-disabled, housing is a critical resource that is often hard to find. For people with disabilities, finding adequate housing that is affordable and accessible is often a month's long, if not year's long process. With this in mind, it is vital that renters with disabilities have protections such as those found in the Regional Tenant Landlord Ordinance. Under the proposed ordinance, renters with disabilities, just like non disabled renters, will be protected from excessive move-in fees, will be protected from hidden fees, and will be protected from excessive late fee penalties. Progress Center fully supports the RTLO and urges Cook County Board Members to support passage of the ordinance.

I would like to thank the sponsors and strongly hope others will consider a yes vote. 20-3562 will help bring a fairer balance between a landlord and tenant relationship. It will put in processes that will help keep tenants and homeowners living in manufactured homes in their homes who reside in Cook County. Families need to know that they have the positive impacts that comes with the decision of a yes vote. The security of knowing, if needed, tools that will help keep them in their home. Thank you for your time.

External Message Disclaimer

This message originated from an external source. Please use proper judgment and caution when opening attachments, clicking links, or responding to this email.

I wish for these comments to be read aloud and entered into the record.
To the Board of Commissioners of Cook County,

My name is Donald Gross. I am a resident of Midlothian, and a member of the Party for Socialism and Liberation.

Safe and sanitary housing is a human right.

In Cook County, we have apartment buildings with access stairs to front doors that have collapsed. Landlords refuse to answer the phone calls of tenants asking about the lack of heat. Pests such as rats or cockroaches are a common occurrence. I have relatives who have walked away from leases because they were overwhelmed by late fees their landlord imposed. These conditions make it obvious that Cook County is a long way from having secure housing as a human right.

The Residential Tenant and Landlord Ordinance will help clarify the rights and protections of tenants in Cook County, and it should be passed and implemented as soon as possible. Even when passed it will take tenants organizing together to actually get landlords to acknowledge the rights and protections in the ordinance.

The RTLO will not make housing a human right in Cook County, but it'll give working and poor people in the county a new tool with which to organize. It's a shameful indictment of our current political and economic system that it took a devastating pandemic to get an ordinance like this seriously considered. Even in these circumstances, it has been watered down to appease real estate interests.

The struggle for housing is larger than the Cook County Board can completely address. Right now, we need the state or federal government to step in and cancel rents and mortgages for the duration of the pandemic. Ultimately, making housing a human right will require ending commodified housing, and the extraction of profit from people just trying to have a place to live.

Everyone deserves a safe and clean home to live in, and I hope the Cook County Board begins to recognize that right today.
