The Village of Schaumburg has reviewed the language in the proposed ordinance amendment 21-1048 and has determined that this would be an additional reporting mandate, create redundant work, and is likely to confuse residents whose property taxes generally are not affected by TIF districts.

The State of Illinois already requires detailed reports regarding TIF Districts and that information is available from the municipality and via the Illinois Comptroller's website:

<https://illinoiscomptroller.gov/financial-data/local-government-division/local-government-data/searchform/?SearchType=TIFSearch>

The Village of Schaumburg respectfully requests that the amendment be rejected as unnecessary and burdensome on local governments.
