The award winning J. Ivy is a profound part of our community and nation. It is imperative that we celebrate our heroes and our champions. Poetry in itself is the voice of the people and he has been sounding the alarm on this for a very long time. From book giveaways to mentoring several generations of youth in our community, J. Ivy is a constant source of light and uplift-ment in the Chicago area and beyond. It would be an honor to witness the declaration of his permanent place in our history books! It will be an extreme pleasure to see our example of excellence in spoken word poetry marked as a holiday in our beautiful county and all the surrounding areas.
