PROPOSED RESOLUTIONRESOLUTION HONORING THE REMARKABLE LIFE AND LEGACY OF MYLES LEE REED SR.

WHEREAS, it is both fitting and proper that the Cook County Board of Commissioners pauses to recognize and celebrate the extraordinary life and enduring contributions of Myles Lee Reed Sr., who was born on January 26, 1925, in Lorman, Mississippi - a man distinguished by an unshakable faith, a profound commitment to community, and a tireless devotion to the uplift of his fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, Myles Lee Reed Sr., the devoted husband of the late Barbara Nell Wilkerson Reed, was also the loving and guiding patriarch to his children - Myles Lee Jr., Frank, Darryl, Brenda, Ronald, and Claude - exemplifying the virtues of steadfast fatherhood and principled leadership within his family and beyond; and

WHEREAS, as a young man, Mr. Reed migrated to Omaha, Nebraska, where he would embark on the foundational chapters of a life characterized by purpose, resilience, and service. In his formative years, he nobly answered the call of duty, serving in the United States Army, and upon completing his service, availed himself of the GI Bill to pursue higher education. At the University of Nebraska, he pledged the esteemed Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. and earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education - a testament to his unwavering belief in the power of education and fraternity; and

WHEREAS, in the late 1950s, Mr. Reed relocated to the great city of Chicago, Illinois, where he raised his growing family and continued his dedication to professional and civic advancement. He distinguished himself as a Job Development Specialist and Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) Officer, and furthered his advocacy through instrumental roles at institutions such as the Olivet Institute, Jobs Now Project, and the Borg-Warner Corporation - where, notably, he served as one of the first Black executives in the 1960s; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Reed's professional acumen was matched only by his civic engagement, as he worked closely with organizations like the Chicago Urban League and the Ada S. McKinley Foundation to dismantle barriers to opportunity and promote economic empowerment throughout the South Side of Chicago; and

WHEREAS, profoundly civic-minded and deeply invested in the betterment of his community, Mr. Reed twice campaigned for the position of Alderman in Chicago's 21st Ward - a reflection of his enduring commitment to equitable representation and the democratic process; and

WHEREAS, a man of both intellect and athletic prowess, Mr. Reed played semi-professional baseball with the Dukes of the Washington Park Baseball League well into his early forties, and generously shared his expertise and mentorship as a coach of the Orioles of the Jackie Robinson West Little League - nurturing the athletic and personal growth of countless youth in Brainard Park; and

WHEREAS, as a current resident of Chicago's Fifth Ward, Mr. Reed is not only celebrated for the longevity of his life, now having surpassed the remarkable milestone of 100 years, but also for the indelible impact he has made on generations of Chicagoans through his wisdom, moral clarity, and enduring acts of service; and

WHEREAS, his century-long journey through American life bears witness to the transformative power of perseverance, education, family, faith, and public service - qualities that define a legacy which continues to inspire those who have the privilege of knowing him; and

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, BILL LOWRY, COOK COUNTY COMMISSIONER OF THE 3rd DISTRICT, AND TONI PRECKWINKLE, PRESIDENT OF THE COOK COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONER, assembled this day, does hereby extend its highest commendation and most heartfelt congratulations to Myles Lee Reed Sr. for reaching the extraordinary milestone of 100 years of life and for his decades of invaluable service, leadership, and unwavering commitment to the community, the city, and the county he calls home; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be presented to Myles Lee Reed Sr. and his family as a permanent testament to his monumental contributions and as a symbol of the profound esteem in which he is held by the people of the Office of Cook County Commissioner Bill Lowry 3rd.

PROPOSED RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF MALIK T. MURRAY

WHEREAS, Malik T. Murray was a distinguished leader, visionary professional, and beloved son of Cook County whose profound contributions to business, education, and community empowerment leaves a lasting legacy across Chicago and beyond; and

WHEREAS, Malik T. Murray exemplified the highest ideals of service, leadership, and compassion, leaving an indelible imprint upon the City of Chicago, Cook County, and the countless lives he touched through his professional excellence, philanthropic endeavors, and personal generosity; and

WHEREAS, Malik was born and raised in the South Shore neighborhood of Chicago, the cherished son of the Honorable Leonard Murray, Judge of the Cook County Circuit Court, and the late Linda Diane Gray Murray, a respected educator whose influence inspired Malik's lifelong commitment to education, equity, and civic service; and

WHEREAS, Malik's journey of excellence began at St. Philip Neri Elementary School and continued at St. Ignatius College Prep, where he distinguished himself as a scholar-athlete, embodying the Ignatian ideal of being a "Man for Others" through academic achievement and athletic excellence; and

WHEREAS, Malik pursued higher education at DePaul University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in finance, competed as a four-year letter winner on the men's basketball team, and later obtained an MBA in finance from the Kellstadt Graduate School of Business, demonstrating a lifelong commitment to intellectual and professional growth; and

WHEREAS, Malik built an extraordinary career in finance, beginning at Bank One Brokerage and culminating at Ariel Investments, where he faithfully served for over two decades as Senior Vice President and Head of Business Development, distinguished by his strategic vision, principled leadership, and client-first philosophy; and

WHEREAS, Malik's influence extended far beyond his professional success, as he selflessly mentored aspiring leaders, championed diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives, and cultivated opportunities for underserved communities throughout Chicago; and

WHEREAS, Malik's devotion to education was demonstrated through his board service at DePaul University and St. Ignatius College Prep, where he not only provided strategic guidance but also established two transformative endowments - the Linda Diane Gray Murray Excellence Through Education, Equity and Inclusion Endowment at St. Ignatius, and a scholarship at DePaul promoting excellence in basketball and finance; and

WHEREAS, Malik's profound generosity, humility, and compassion earned him universal admiration, while his legacy of mentorship, community leadership, and public service will continue to inspire future generations; and

WHEREAS, the untimely passing of Malik T. Murray at the age of 50 is a tremendous loss to his family, friends, colleagues at Ariel Investments, and the broader community that he served with such devotion and love;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, BILL LOWRY, COOK COUNTY COMMISSIONER OF THE 3rd DISTRICT, AND TONI PRECKWINKLE, PRESIDENT OF THE COOK COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONER, on behalf of the residents of Cook County, does hereby celebrate the extraordinary life and enduring contributions of Malik T. Murray, whose impact will continue to shape our community for years to come; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Cook County Board of Commissioners extends its deepest and most heartfelt condolences to Malik's father, Leonard Murray; his sisters, Nubia Murray Davis and Kai Murray; his brother, Kamau Murray; and all who were privileged to know and love him; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be presented to the family of Malik T. Murray as a lasting tribute to his remarkable legacy and in grateful acknowledgment of his exceptional life of service of the Office of Cook County Commissioner Bill Lowry 3rd.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF DR. CHERYL F. GREEN

WHEREAS, Almighty God in His infinite wisdom called from our midst, Dr. Cheryl F. Green, Governors State University's sixth President, on Wednesday, April 23, 2025, following a lengthy illness; and

WHEREAS, at a young age, Dr. Green learned her life's purpose when she served as a literacy tutor and saw firsthand the disparities in education. She earned her Ph.D. in Psychology and later went on to fulfill her dream of impacting communities by serving students in higher education across several states, including Indiana, Tennessee, and Wisconsin; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Green was passionate about community, education, and student success. For more than thirty years, she devoted her time and talent to transforming lives through the power of higher education and removing barriers to marginalized communities; and

WHEREAS, never one to shy away from a challenge, Dr. Green took the reins as President of Governors State University at the height of the pandemic in July of 2020. As the University's first African American president, she made historic moves elevating the visibility of the institution, while creating opportunities and removing barriers to education; and

WHEREAS, a native of Chicago's South Side, Dr. Green considered the president's role at Governors State University a dream come true and often said it was the culmination of all her life's work. She was committed to cementing the University's reputation as the "jewel of the Southland" and was known to engage staff and students with humor and candor, empathy and compassion. It was not uncommon for her to use personal funds to assist a student in need; and

WHEREAS, she led the effort to ensure the University established a free-standing Social Justice Initiative to address barriers to social mobility, equity, and justice. The Latinx Resource Center was established under her direction to support and nurture the growing Latinx student population; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Green secured the University's largest private donation in history; created the Honors College and the College of Graduate Studies at Governors State University; and brought the Illinois Black Hall of Fame to Governors State University; and

WHEREAS, the legacy of Dr. Green, a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®, will forever live on through her work to establish institutions on campus, including the first Greek-lettered organizations on campus; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Green was committed to making a difference and education was her priority. She also was committed to serving her community through work on several corporate and community boards across the nation; and

WHEREAS, off campus, Dr. Green embraced her passion for the arts and reading that was instilled in her as a child. Dr. Green loved history and often infused speeches with historical references to Black history and Latin American history, as well as quotes from historical giants such as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Nelson Mandela, and Confucius. She was tremendously proud of her two adult children and often spoke fondly of her extensive family; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Green, was a beloved child, sister, mother, friend and has left a lasting legacy of service. She will truly be missed by all;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and Members of the Cook County Board of Commissioners does hereby honor the life of Dr. Cheryl F. Green as a distinguished member of the community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, this text be spread upon the official proceedings of this Honorable Body and a suitable copy be presented to the family of Dr. Cheryl F. Green so that her memory may be so honored and ever cherished.

HONORING MICHELLE HARRIS ON THE OCCASION OF HER RETIREMENT

WHEREAS, Michelle Harris has served with distinction as Executive Assistant to Commissioner Donna Miller since the Commissioner assumed office in December 2018, playing a vital role in ensuring the efficient, compassionate, and professional operation of the 6th District office; and

WHEREAS, Michelle's journey in public service began immediately after graduating high school in the 1970s, when a local precinct captain encouraged her to apply for a position at the Cook County Medical Examiner's Office. She accepted the opportunity and began working at the Cook County Morgue, located at 2121 W. Harrison Street in Chicago-a facility later named the Robert J. Stein Institute of Forensic Medicine. Under the leadership of Chief Toxicologist Dr. Michael Schaffer, Michelle served for approximately three years, embracing the role with courage, diligence, and grace; and

WHEREAS, Michelle's career reflects a deep commitment to the public good and civic leadership. Over the years, she has served and supported numerous prominent leaders in government, transportation, and the nonprofit sector, including her work under the Office of the Governor from 2003 to 2007; at Amtrak, where she contributed to State & Local Government Affairs; at the Chicago Urban League from 2007 to 2010, supporting then-President and CEO Cheryl Jackson; and later at AAR from 2010 to 2017, assisting senior leadership in Global Business Development. Her behind-the-scenes excellence and ability to carry out complex responsibilities with precision made her an indispensable asset in every role she held; and

WHEREAS, throughout her many years of service, Michelle Harris has been known for her sharp intellect, unwavering diligence, and generous spirit, making her not only an asset to every organization she has touched but a beloved colleague and friend; and

WHEREAS, Michelle is a woman of deep faith and community, having been a devoted member of Cosmopolitan Church of Prayer at 5842 S. Indiana Avenue under the leadership of Pastor Derail V. Smith since 1960, where she has faithfully served on the Board of Deaconess and as Chair of Finance; and

WHEREAS, Michelle's personal life has been marked by resilience and love. She is the proud mother of Ariell Renée Harris, and though her beloved husband, William Harris, passed away in 2020, she carries forward his memory with strength, grace, and a steadfast commitment to family; and

WHEREAS, after decades of dedicated public service across multiple sectors and institutions, Michelle Harris is retiring, leaving behind a remarkable legacy of leadership, loyalty, and integrity that will continue to inspire all who had the pleasure of working alongside her;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and Cook County Board of Commissioners does hereby recognize and commend Michelle Harris for her outstanding and selfless service to Cook County, the State of Illinois, and her community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this resolution be presented to Michelle Harris with sincere gratitude and best wishes for joy, rest, and fulfillment in her well-earned retirement.
