Board Secretary Cook County Board,

As someone who was born and raised in Chicago, I acknowledge that this land does not belong to me or to us. Hundreds of thousands of people in Cook County support Indigenous Peoples' Day replacing Columbus Day (File #21-0565) and a reading of a Land Acknowledgement at Board Meetings (File #21-0597) for Cook County and the Cook County Forest Preserves. Over 145 organizations have signed on thus far (see updated list as of June 15th: bit.ly/IPDSupportersJune15)

PLEASE do the right and just thing in the name of equity and racial justice when you vote! We WILL remember how you vote on this when it's time for your re-election (or how you will leave office if you're retiring).

Thank you,
Mari

Board Secretary Cook County Board,

Hello,

I hope this message finds you well during these tumultuous times. Hundreds of thousands of people in Cook County support Indigenous Peoples' Day replacing Columbus Day (File #21-0565) and a reading of a Land Acknowledgement at Board Meetings (File #21-0597) for Cook County and the Cook County Forest Preserves. PLEASE do the right and just thing in the name of equity and racial justice when you vote! We WILL remember how you vote on this when it's time for your re-election (or how you will leave office if you're retiring). It is so important and would set an example for how the rest of the country should and could be.

Thank you for your consideration and time. It is immensely appreciated.
