November is Native American Heritage Month! Please read Land Acknowledgements for each County meeting going forward. It would be a step toward realizing Cook County's commitment to equity. We live on the lands of the Council of the Three Fires as well as other Native groups over the history of this area. This land was not acquired through honorable means. You could begin to make this small token of reparations.

November is Native American Heritage Month! Did you know that 100% of Cook County was Native land before colonial settlers, immigrants, and Africans were brought to this land against their will? As a Cook County constituent, I urge the board to pass #21-0597 and begin reading a Land Acknowledgement at each Cook County Board meeting. I, along with thousands of community members, believe it's the least you can do to acknowledge harms caused on this land and to honor the traditional custodians of the land on which we all reside and occupy here in Cook County. I'm very grateful Juneteenth passed unanimously, and I hope the board can now pass the Land Acknowledgement to maintain our commitment to equity.

Columbus was a colonialist savage who enslaved the Natives and visited genocide upon them. This was the first shot in the now half-millennium rape and murder in the Americas and increasingly in the world. This should pay reparations not be celebrated with a holiday..

As a volunteer at the Mitchell Museum of the American Indian, I have learned more about the history of this area and how the US government pushed Native Americans out of this area. We need to be continually reminded that we live on Native Land and should work to educate Cook County citizens.

November is Native American Heritage Month! 100% of Cook County was Native land before colonial settlers, immigrants, and Africans were brought to this land against their will. PLEASE pass #21-0597 and begin reading a Land Acknowledgement at each Cook County Board meeting. It's the least you can do to acknowledge harms caused on this land.

A Land Acknowledgment is a formal statement that recognizes and respects Indigenous Peoples as traditional stewards of this land and the enduring relationship that exists between Indigenous Peoples and their traditional territories.

To recognize the land is an expression of gratitude and appreciation to those whose territory you reside on, and a way of honoring the Indigenous people who have been living and working on the land from time immemorial. It is important to understand the long standing history that has brought you to reside on the land, and to seek to understand your place within that history. Land acknowledgments do not exist in a past tense, or historical context: colonialism is a current ongoing process, and we need to build our mindfulness of our present participation. It is also worth noting that acknowledging the land is Indigenous protocol.

Acknowledgement of the history of the abuse of indigenous peoples are a first step in retribution and healing. If our community is committed to equity, we must acknowledge how inequity has been created and then take tangible steps to repair that harm. Especially in a time when there is so much resistance to education on race and oppression, we must take every opportunity to reassert anti-oppressive values and efforts.

Land Acknowledgements are becoming more common, which has benefits in terms of education. However, they are NOT intended to be performative or "check!-now-I'm-not-racist" acts. They are intended to call everyone in, especially non-Natives, to reflect on broken treaties, colonization, genocide, and opportunities for repair/healing/reparations beginning locally with the about 65,000 Native people in Cook County.

I am writing in support of #21-0597, because recognizing the harms and injustices our nation has inflicted upon Native peoples is a critical step toward redressing those wrongs and building a more just society. All of Cook County exists on land stolen from its original inhabitants. Reading a Land Acknowledgement at Cook County Board Meetings is the very least you can do to honor the land's traditional custodians and to uphold the County's commitment to equity.

I hope that the board will begin reading land acknowledgements before meetings! In order to move forward, it is important that we recognize the harms committed against the indigenous peoples of what is now Cook County, and that we understand our country's history. Land acknowledgements at functions like board meetings are a small but important step!

It's extremely important that we acknowledge the wrong-doings enacted by the founders of our nation unto the indigenous populations that lived here undisturbed for decades. The extermination of native tribes is a part of our country's history; if we do not recognize our past, we cannot move forward to heal the future. If we do not regularly grapple with our past, we only continue to enact cultural genocide and force native communities into invisibility. Verbal land acknowledgment at Cook County board meetings is the least we can do.
