Please find warmth in your heart to give Rocky the best life possible. Please allow him to roam, to hide, to be as free as possible. Humans erred when they thought he was a dog as a young coyote pup. It is time to correct the wrong, to do the next best thing for this animal who is not ours to claim. We cannot change the past but we owe it to him to change his future. Please provide him with the most humane surroundings possible and surrender him to a better life at The Wild Animal Sanctuary. No cage is big enough to correct the wrongs. If you love him, allow him to live like a coyote. Give him the life that so many other wild animals raised in captivity, even in people's homes, are now enjoying. The transformation is beautiful to witness. Give Rocky the same freedom. It is the right thing to do.

Respectfully,

Irene Sewell

Please relinquish Rocky the coyote to the wild animal sanctuary where he can learn to socialize with other coyotes and have enough space to roam. The larger enclosure planned for him at the Forest Preserve isn't large enough, and he will remain isolated from others of his kind.

Cook County Officials,

Please have compassion and common sense.

Please allow Rocky the coyote to go to The Wild Animal Sanctuary.

He will be in the care of veterinary and rehab experts instead of those who are only interested in making an exhibit of him and keeping him in a cage.

Thankyou.

I am deeply disappointed at the decision to keep Rocky at his current inadequate facility rather than transfer him to an approach sanctuary that could much better accommodate his needs. Please consider what's best for Rocky instead of self-serving human interests!

I am a licensed Veterinarian in the state of California and in the country of Mexico, where I graduated from Veterinary School. I have an M.S. in Wildlife Conservation from Macquarie University in Sydney Australia. I have experience with wildlife rehabilitation and with zoo medicine. Coyotes are pack animals and they should be free in the wild.

Please, I beg you, transfer Rocky to a wildlife sanctuary in Colorado.

Please do not teach our kids that it is OK to enclose an innocent animal for education or entertainment purposes. There is plenty of technology such as virtual reality, that can replace having an intelligent, conscious, living being trapped and isolated for the rest of his life.

Thank you for your consideration.
