My name is Jeremiah Trask. I am 16 years old and a member of Good Kids Mad City. On December 17, 2021, my 17-year-old cousin, Travis Watts, was found shot to death on 111th and Doty Road, a block away from the 111th Chicago police station. My cousin was in trouble! He needed a positive outlet. Since he didn't have a positive outlet at his exposure, he got connected with the wrong crowd and got into somethings that cost him his life. I wish my cousin had the opportunity to be a part of GKMC.

Being a part of Good Kids Mad City has been life changing for me. I learned coping skills to help deal with certain pressures and peacemaking models that I demonstrate at my high school. I am confident to be a leader.

As a leader of the next generation, I am asking members of the Cook County Board to support our Peace Book Pilot Program. Give it a chance like I gave Good Kids Mad City a chance to learn how to be a peacemaker.
