Re: Letter of Recommendation

Dear President Preckwinkle:

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Attorney Marc M. Hamilton. I have had the pleasure of observing Mr. Hamilton's professional development and growth over the past 15 years and have watched him grow into a strong leader, diligent attorney and a dedicated husband and father.

I am currently retired; however, I met Mr. Hamilton 15 years ago when I was a practicing attorney in private practice and serving as the Village Attorney for the Village of Dolton. I hired Mr. Hamilton to assist me in my duties as Village Attorney and as the Village Prosecutor. Mr. Hamilton proved to be a quick learner and someone who was able to take direction well. He took the initiative to identify problems and devise solutions and exhibited the ability to work well in a high pressure environment.

I strongly support Mr. Hamilton's candidacy for the Director of Administrative Hearings for Cook County because I know he has the skill set needed to successfully fulfill this role. Mr. Hamilton is a focused and determined young man who works well with others and I am confident that he would be an asset to any employer or team.

Sincerely,

Everett C. McLeary, Esq.
