

Part Two of the Restorative Justice Series

The Cook County Commission on Women's Issues invites you to its
2017 Annual Public Hearing

EMERGING ADULTS

Young Adults Ages 18 to 24 in
Cook County's Criminal Justice System

October 24, 2017

9 a.m. | Bilandic Building | 5th Floor Auditorium
160 N LaSalle, Chicago, Illinois 60602

Emerging adults are disproportionately represented in Cook County's criminal justice system. A growing body of research shows that we need to change the way we think about and respond to emerging adults. Join us to learn more about how emerging adults are unique, the economic impact of this issue, and ways we can reverse this troubling trend.
