I don't think we need this tax because Ms. Prepinkle should have enough money in her budget to conduct business. If she doesn't have enough then she should start cutting starting with her salary and others. Other counties are having problems and they seem to be able to get things done without raising taxes. Another thing she emphasises is children's health. Raising taxes isn't going to solve the problem. Children need to be more active and eating more healthier. So that is why the beverage tax isn't the answer.

This Tax needs to be banned. This tax is fraudulent and represented to the community as a cure for obesity. In reality this tax was put into place to pay city worker. Now that the tax is backfiring individuals are getting laid off of their jobs because the community is not shopping in the city limits anymore.

The soda tax claims to be about public health among the poor but yet the tax is exempt from Link card recipients. They are the ones targeted with this tax and yet they don't pay it. It's not about public health but about padding the wallets of cool county and the wallets of its public servants.

I support repeal of the Cook County Soda Tax. It is an expensive intrusion in taxpayers' lives. There is undoubtedly plenty of waste in county government that can be cut.

This tax needs to be repealed. We are drowning in taxes and this one is pushing my family to go to IN or Will County to do my shopping (less tax for Cook). This tax is dishonest because it's not for health it's a money grab. Myself and family vote EVERY election and if this isn't repealed we will voice our displeasure at the ballot box. Cook County needs to cut the budget, get rid of waste like business. When the county becomes responsible with our money, only then will I support any tax.

It is very disheartening to see the tv commercials. All of the actors are people of color. That would make one think that the African American community is the only community drinking sugary drinks. Additionally, stating that children are obese due sugary drinks....please. If that is the case, you all should put money on educating parents on how to feed children. Please be real in this, you are just finding ways to collect money. You should look at taxing cigarettes and alcohol and not vitamin drinks that are healthy with zero calories.

It's great to inform the community of health risks, but don't pull a money move on your own residents. Find other ways to build the bank. The tax was introduced during the hottest point of the year when everyone is known to drink sweet drinks AND water to stay hydrated. We're paying for both.

I'm not in favor of this beverage tax and I would like for the commissioners to vote in favor to repeal this tax because it is causing the taxpayers to pay additional money. This tax is not for health reasons or concerns for the citizens of Cook County.

The beverage tax should be repealed because it places an undue burden on low and middle class families. Also, many stores are taking advantage by improperly taxing items. I was charged a "sugar tax" for a bag of sugar free hard candies. I agree that Americans need to be healthier; however, the regulations and penalties should be imposed on the beverage/food makers instead of charging struggling families more. This is only causes people to buy in other counties (which I've opted to do) and/or adds or causes a financial hardship on the families which the tax claims to benefit.

The Beverage Tax targets low income black and brown families who can simply not afford to pay money for the increase in beverage prices. The lie that Michael Bloomberg and Toni Preckwinkle are promoting (that this tax is to help families eat healthily) is nonsense. If someone wants to be unhealthy, it is their right to do it and it should not be the government's job to regulate my sugar intake.

Cook county residents do not need another tax and to help the county take away jobs & sales for businesses is so unethical. Let the voter have a voice since we are the one that help elected those in office. That is to much power to have over the residents of cook county and Michael Bloomberg shouldn't have a voice in cook county matters. He doesn't live here nor vote here. Whom is he influencing ?

It is a financial strain when it comes to grocery shopping for my family. The cost of beverages is almost double. I drink sugary drinks in moderation and i am in optimal health. I feel the county is punishing me for making personal choices. If this continues, i am forced to spend my money in Indiana.

It is the right time to be more concerned about the health issues of Cook County residents and helping them improve than with just pleasing those that make money off of the poor decisions many make due to habit and lack of better knowledge of how they damage their health with sugary drinks, etc. The resulting costs to health care system and continued decline of health to individuals by not having this tax implemented will be a high price to pay just to please the big drink companies and those who just can't embrace change for the better.

Please, please, please, keep strong and implement the sugary beverage tax.

The beverage tax is a tax that should be repealed, should never have been approved, and needs to be prohibited from being considered in the past. The County does need greater revenue and support from our state government yet in the interim to balance our budget we must find revenue from the most wealthy cook county residents and organizations which do business in Cook County in order for the majority of the hard working people to remain calling Cook County our home. Repeal the tax and don't let it come back!

REPEAL THE SODA TAX, EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY.

I am frustrated at the level of political lies being told to the public that the soda tax will solve the health problems. I don't have any medical issue from drinking soda. Soda and juice alone does not cause disease. Everything in moderation. Where does the sugar tax end? What about candy? What about baking sugars? We are NOT stupid. The government is looking for money and toward the people to fund all their waste and spending that needs to be resolve internally. Get rid of the political personal spending allowances. Get rid of the political perks that are unlimited at your disposal. Get rid of the top medical insurance that the people are paying you. I pay for you and I cannot pay for myself. Something is seriously wrong with politics.

NO TO SODA TAX!

This can tax is unfair and unjust, cook county gov. Do not have the right tell me what to give to my family, I am the head of house in my home and what i give my family is my private business, second of all initial reasoning Preckwinkle gave for raising taxes because she needed funds to provide for her overage of employees, she came up with the bag tax for Chicago and if that wasn't good enough, she and her cabinet decided to raise the beverage tax to get more revenue s she paid the union and everybody else off...Hell NO...let cook county gov manage their own books if that meant laying off employees and consolidating then that's what she and others have to do..

CAN THE BEVERAGE TAX NOW!!!! 17-4704
