I work as a BSW at Stroger Hospital and we are understaffed. Cook County Health and Hospitals System cannot sustain a cut of $27 million to its budget. By repealing the Sweetened Beverage Tax and leaving a $200 million hole in the Cook County Budget, the County Commissioners must now make the difficult choices to raise revenues. If we continue to cut services, it is just going to cost us more later down the line. Find some revenue alternatives to maintain vital services and public institutions.
