You want to tax soda fine tax sugared soda. But the tax has gone on to everything but milk and 100% juice. I was going to be taxed on water which has no fructose, carbohydrates, calories nothing. While in line a family with their link card was buying 6,2 liters of soda. Funny how the government is so worried about obesity in children of upper and middle class that they get taxed. While those that are the worse offenders of drinking soda are not taxed. Funny how the government doesn't care about them. Really you want to tax soda tax soda and only soda and do it for all not just those that "supposedly" can afford it.

Repeal the Soda Tax. This is a obscene cover to raise money for what purpose, I don't know. Using the excuse that it will prevent obesity in kids is a Ridiculous statement.

Only the parents guide in raising their children can curb the obisity problem. Try another more honest tax to use,
