To whom it may concern, we the children of Carrie Claybon whom fell victim of Covid-19 at the hands of staff members at Westchester Health & Rehabilitation Center. Our mother faced repeated neglect. She was supposed to have only been there for 30 days or so to receive therapy. They refused to release her stating we needed a referral from the doctor. We requested to have the doctor to provide a referral release but we never heard back after several attempts. Our mother were often sent to dialysis soiled with bowel movement and urine. Dialysis facility refused to give her treatment before and sent her back because she had bowel movement up her back. They also sent her to dialysis wearing her slippers, night gown and bowels all over her hands from scratching behind. During snow blizzards she was sent to dialysis with only socks while she had winter boots. She occasionally mentioned that she wasn't given food. We often took her food. We took responsibility for washing her clothes and they would only get her up and dressed for dialysis. She often had diaper rashes because they would change her once in the morning and once at night.
