IN MEMORY OF AVY MEYERS

WHEREAS, Avy Meyers, long-time host of North Town News Magazine, opinionated owner and publisher for the newspaper Jewish Chicago and well known cable and You Tube interviewer who was perhaps best known for his judicial interviews died at the age of 66, leaving behind family, friends, colleagues and a community enriched for having known him; and

WHEREAS, Avy Meyers was a long time journalist at North Town News Magazine, Chicago's only weekly televised neighborhood news magazine, which later had a powerful presence on the internet as well. Over the course of the run of the show he conducted more than ten thousand interviews and drew some of the highest You Tube viewership of any local cable show in the country; and

WHEREAS, as a young journalist Avy Meyers went to work for the Chicago Defender and became their first white reporter. He covered countless criminal trials and became interested in issues regarding the judiciary. It was partly this interest that focused his scrutiny on judicial candidates. He was also actively involved with issues concerning community policing and consequently involved in local oversight of the Chicago Police Department; and

WHEREAS, most recently, on North Town News Magazine Avy Meyers drew national attention for his interview with former Cook County State's Attorney Anita Alvarez regarding her handling at the time, of the killing of a young black teenager, Laquan McDonald; and

WHEREAS, Avy Meyers will long be remembered for his interviews with local politicians. His interviewees were members of both parties. Each of his subjects would join him in front of a sheet in his make-shift studio in the dining room of his West Rogers Park home; and

WHEREAS, Avy Meyers had the unique ability to work without rancor and as a result was genuinely respected by those on both sides of the political aisle. While a very opinioned man, as a journalist, he was genuinely interested in listening to the viewpoints of those he disagreed and he often used his show as a platform to share those opinions. He always treated his subjects with fairness and respect even candidates he disliked personally. Likewise, he was known for his fairness when it came to selling advertising space for his publication. He was immensely proud of the fact that his endorsements were not in any way influenced by the size of an ad purchased by a candidate, or whether a candidate bought an ad at all; he was particularly harsh on those who thought his endorsement and good opinion could be bought; and

WHEREAS, Avy Meyers' exceptional work was frequently recognized by his peers; he was singled out for distinction when he was awarded the Award of Excellence in Community Outreach from the Illinois State Crime Commission, and three National Awards for Best News Show and Making a Difference in the Community conferred by the Alliance for Community Media.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of Cook County, on behalf of the 5.2 million residents of Cook County commemorates the exceptional life of Avy Meyers and herewith expresses its sincere gratitude for the invaluable and innumerable contributions he has made to the Citizens of Cook County, Illinois; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be spread upon the official proceedings of this Honorable Body and that an official copy of the same be tendered to the family of Avy Meyers.
