PRESIDENT OF THE COOK COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS

EARTH WEEK RESOLUTION 2019

WHEREAS, Earth Day, observed every year on April 22 to diversify, educate and activate the environmental movement worldwide, now has over one billion people participating across the globe; and

WHEREAS, sustainable communities are a core policy priority for Cook County; and

WHEREAS, sustainable communities thrive economically, socially and environmentally, and promote the goal of equity in Cook County; and

WHEREAS, Cook County's Policy Roadmap commits us to ensuring environmental justice, promoting sustainable development, fighting climate change, promoting green jobs for all, and building the capacity of our communities to create a sustainable and resilient future; and

WHEREAS, Cook County has reduced greenhouse gas emissions from its building energy use by 32 percent since 2010, towards its goal of becoming carbon neutral by the year 2050, by developing energy efficiency and renewable energy projects; and

WHEREAS, Cook County implemented the Green Buildings Program that looks holistically at the design, space utilization, operations and life cycle impact of County owned properties to become a model for sustainable asset management that minimizes environmental impacts, improves the health and wellness of communities, and increases the value of County assets to optimize taxpayer dollars; and

WHEREAS, Cook County supports sustainable communities through promoting community solar and energy efficiency for residents, helping to return brownfields to productive use, promoting transit and other non-auto alternative transportation modes, increasing recycling, and in many other ways; and

WHEREAS, Cook County is working with its employees, residents and communities to raise awareness and encourage adoption of energy efficiency, renewable energy and sustainable practices.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Cook County Board of Commissioners that the week of April 21 to 27, 2019 be declared Earth Week in Cook County.

Approved and adopted this 20th of March 2019.

DECLARING MARCH 2019 “SOCIAL WORK MONTH”

WHEREAS, the Social Work Profession is dedicated to enhancing well-being and helping meet the basic needs of all people, especially those who are vulnerable, oppressed and living in poverty; and

WHEREAS, this year’s Social Work Month theme, “Elevate Social Work” embodies the need to recognize the extraordinary contributions of the profession to our society; and

WHEREAS, the Social Work profession is expected to grow faster than average over the next seven years, with more than 682,000 people expected to be employed as social workers by 2026; and

WHEREAS, Social Workers elevate and empower people, giving them the ability to solve problems, cope with personal roadblocks and get the resources they need to succeed; and

WHEREAS, the Social Work profession is deeply weaved into our society with social workers active in government, schools, universities, social service agencies, communities, corporations, the military and in health care and mental health care settings; and

WHEREAS, Social Workers are the largest group of providers of mental health services in the United States and the United States Department of Veterans Affairs is one of the largest employers of social workers holding advanced degrees; and

WHEREAS, Social Workers travel across the nation and world to help people in crisis, helping them overcome issues such as death and grief, epidemics, environmental pollution and natural disasters such as wildfires, hurricanes and floods; and

WHEREAS, Social Workers for decades have been in the forefront on social justice, pushing for equal rights for women, African Americans, Latinos, people who are disabled, people who are LGBTQ and various ethnic, cultural and religious groups; and

WHEREAS, the Social Work profession for more than a century has been on the cutting edge of helping create changes to make our society a better place to live, including voting rights, improved workplace safety, a minimum wage and social safety net programs that ameliorate poverty and hunger; and

WHEREAS, Social Workers stand ready to help our society overcome current pressing issues, including equal rights for all, the need for improved availability of health care and mental health services; immigration reform; voting rights and the environmental impact of global warming; and

WHEREAS, Cook County employs social workers in various agencies, including but not limited to, the Bureau of Administration’s Department of Adoption and Family Supportive Services, which provides professional home-based social investigations that courts rely on in making critical decisions affecting the safety and well-being of children involved in adoption, probate, dissolution of marriage and parentage proceedings.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the month of March 2019 be proclaimed as Social Work Month in recognition of the numerous contributions made by Cook County's Social Workers, and that all residents be called upon to join Cook County and the National Association of Social Workers in celebration and support of the Social Work Profession.

Approved and adopted this 20th of March 2019.

HONORING AND RECOGNIZING DAR SERCA (GIFT FROM THE HEART)

WHEREAS, Dar Serca is a non-profit organization, based in Schiller Park, that provides help to disabled children, mostly from abroad, so they can receive medical treatments from the highest quality clinics in the United States; and

WHEREAS, Dar Serca founder Izabela Rybak experienced the lack of assistance in modern medical care for disabled children when there was a shortage of medical treatments for her son in her hometown of Otwock, Poland; and

WHEREAS, in 1985, Izabela's husband came to America searching for medical assistance and financial quotes for cerebral palsy treatments for their son, eventually finding help from Shriners Hospital in Chicago; and

WHEREAS, the multiple surgeries and extensive care their son required prompted Izabela and her husband to seek permanent residency so they could care for their son and bring their two (2) daughters to Cook County; and

WHEREAS, in 1986, shortly after her arrival to the United States, Izabela met the parents of two (2) children suffering from the same disability as her son and she provided guidance in compiling the necessary information and filling out the paperwork; and

WHEREAS, on November 23, 1988, Dar Serca, Polish for Gift from the Heart, was established and has since been a beacon of hope for children from abroad to come the United States to receive high quality medical care, including life-saving surgery and medical treatments unavailable in their home countries and at no cost to the families; and

WHEREAS, in 2009, a state-of-the-art living facility was built in Schiller Park to provide a comfortable environment for the children and their families or guardians before, during, and after the surgeries and medical treatments; and

WHEREAS, last year, 46 children from abroad were under the care of Dar Serca, a total cost of over $230,000.00; and

WHEREAS, for more than 30 years, the work of Dar Serca is made possible with help from the community, individuals and corporate donations; and

WHEREAS, Dar Serca helps local children with disabilities by providing Saturday classes and summer camp opportunities.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the residents of Cook County, hereby recognize Dar Serca (Gift from the Heart) and founder Izabela Rybak for their services and generous work provided to children from abroad and Cook County residents; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be tendered to Dar Serca founder Izabela Rybak as a means of communicating our appreciation.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF OSCAR JAMES ARMSTRONG

WHEREAS, God in his infinite wisdom called Oscar James Armstrong from our midst; and

WHEREAS, Oscar Armstrong was the oldest of five (5) children born to the late Simon and Flora Armstrong in Lee County, Arkansas; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Armstrong attended grammar school in Postelle Arkansas, and St. Louis, Missouri, Mr. Armstrong graduated from Marianna's Morton High School in 1951; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Armstrong enlisted in the United States Army serving three (3) years during the Korean War; and

WHEREAS, after completing his tour of duty, he returned to Arkansas and enrolled in Arkansas Mechanical and Normal College, now known as the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff (UAPB). While at Arkansas Mechanical and Normal, Mr. Armstrong was editor of the school yearbook for two (2) years, a member of the student government, and named in Who's in American Colleges and Universities in 1957; and

WHEREAS, in 1957 Mr. Armstrong graduated with his Bachelor of Arts degree in history and political science where the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. spoke at his commencement address. He also pursued continuing education and graduate studies at Roosevelt University, University of Illinois Circle Campus (now University of Illinois at Chicago), and the Center for Inner City Studies; and

WHEREAS, Oscar Armstrong met the love of his life Audrey Anne (Scott) whom he married in Chicago, Illinois on September 5, 1958 and remained married for 61 years. This union produced two (2) children; Mark Fitzgerald Armstrong and Ingrid Renee Armstrong Doweary; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Armstrong was employed as a teacher with the Chicago Public School System for 22 years. Mr. Armstrong taught at: Gladstone Elementary School, Pullman Elementary School, Fenger High School, and Bogan High School. He served as Chair of the history department at Crane Technical School. While at Crane, Mr. Armstrong served on a blue ribbon panel which lead to an Illinois law being passed which required teachers to teach Black History in the State's public elementary and secondary schools; and

WHEREAS, Oscar Armstrong was active in various civic organizations including a life membership with AMVETS, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, and the Prince Hall Masons. His civic involvement also included the historically black working-class Maple Park subdivision on Chicago's Far Southwest Side where he served as: President of the block club for the 117th block of South Throop Street and President, Parliamentarian, and Financial Secretary for the Maple Park Community Association (originally the Maple Park Homeowners Association). During his tenure with the homeowners association, Mr. Armstrong was in the forefront of compelling Maple Park subdivision's developers to honor their promise of improving Cooper Park and including a gymnasium in the Whistler Elementary School tripling the school's assembly hall and cafeteria; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Oscar James Armstrong's physical presence may no longer be with us, he shall be remembered as a man who was gentle in spirit, admired and respected by his many friends and neighbors, and dearly loved by his family.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Commissioners of Cook County, the Board does hereby offer its deepest condolences and most heartfelt sympathy to the family of Oscar James Armstrong and join them in sorrow at this time of loss; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this text be spread upon the official proceedings of this Honorable Body, and a suitable copy of the same be tendered to the family of Mr. Oscar James Armstrong so that his memory may be so honored and ever cherished.

HONORING WAYNE ADAMS SR.

WHEREAS, Mr. Wayne Adams Sr. was born in St. Joseph, Missouri on April 15, 1919 and lived there until he graduated from high school; and

WHEREAS, after he graduated, he moved to Chicago to join his mother and stepfather and has lived in Cook County ever since; and

WHEREAS, the family lived a short distance from the 124th Field Artillery Armory, which served both as a military training complex, and as a venue for midget auto races something he had wanted to see since he was 10, and in the fall of 1936, he saw his first race at the armory; and

WHEREAS, soon, he and his parents were attending races throughout the Midwest including summer races at Riverview Stadium, just outside of Riverview Amusement Park at Western and Belmont avenues. They traveled to Rockville, Indiana, Fort Wayne, Indiana, Winchester, Indiana, Dayton, Ohio, and Greenville, Ohio. Locally, they attended races at the new Hammond Raceway in Indiana and Raceway Park in Blue Island; and

WHEREAS, in 1939, Mr. Adams began photographing the races and selling the pictures at the tracks for 50 cents and would go on to become the scorer at Raceway Park, and, late in 1940, was approached by Illustrated Speedway News to cover racing for that publication; and

WHEREAS, his first story in that national paper was about an indoor midget race at the International Amphitheater with Wally Zale winning the 100-lap feature after being down two (2) laps; and

WHEREAS, during this time Wayne met his wife Grace (Boots) Stevens, a romance that would last 76 years; Grace's father had told Wayne he needed to have $1,000.00 in the bank before they could wed so Wayne sold his car to get the money and they were married on Nov. 7, 1942; and

WHEREAS, the two (2) first lived with Grace's parents in Englewood, but six (6) weeks after the wedding, Wayne was inducted into the United States Army, reporting to Camp Grant in Northern Illinois then to Fort McLellan in Alabama for basic training; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Adams became an acting sergeant by his second week in the program, and asked to join the Officer Candidate School (OCS) program for infantry, but there were no spaces available; and

WHEREAS, Grace visited Wayne at Fort McLellan and other camps during his time in the army, and while the rest of his company was shipped out, Wayne was left behind and reassigned to Camp Stewart in Georgia in April of 1943; and

WHEREAS, while there he stayed in the anti-aircraft cadre pool under the direction of a second lieutenant who repeatedly told Wayne he would not make it as an officer in the army; however, undeterred, Wayne reapplied for OCS in anti-aircraft and was accepted and reassigned to Camp Davis in North Carolina on October 9, 1943, graduating the program on January 20, 1944 as a 2nd Lieutenant; and

WHEREAS, in September 1944, he was sent to another officer pool, this time with the 1694th Engineering Battalion at Camp Rucker in Alabama, where he was selected to attend the 2nd Army Mine School learning the latest information on land mines, explosives, and booby traps; that class included every rank from second lieutenants to lieutenant colonels and Wayne posted the highest score in the class and was kept as an instructor there until the school closed; and

WHEREAS, when the school closed, Wayne was sent overseas to Manila in the Philippines. On July 22, 1945, he set sail on a 31-day voyage across the Pacific on the Cape Victory, which held 1,600 men including 800 black soldiers, landing at Batangas in Luzon and then he rejoined the 1694th at a camp north of Manila; and

WHEREAS, while there, he was one of 24 white officers selected to give basic training to a group of black soldiers; These men had been in the army for several years building the Alcan Highway, a supply route through Canada to Alaska, but had never received basic training; They were brought to Manila to help the rebuilding process there; In Wayne's first group, two of the men were from Chicago and one even knew his step-father's butcher shop, where they would meet again after the war; and

WHEREAS, after helping to rebuild the Filipino infrastructure Mr. Adams returned home in April 1946, where he rejoined his family and added another daughter, April Darlene, in July 1947; and

WHEREAS, after the war, Wayne again turned his attention toward auto racing; More than 6,000 fans watched the midgets race at Hanson Park on the northwest side and Wayne was asked to announce the second event of the 1947 season thus beginning a long career in auto racing announcing; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Adams retired from announcing in 1989 after calling 2,625 racing programs, and retired from his daytime job as a trophy salesman two (2) years later; and

WHEREAS, Wayne was inducted into the National Old Timers Auto Racing Hall of Fame in October 1988, the Grundy County Mazon Speed Bowl Hall of Fame in July 2004, the Illinois Stock Car Hall of Fame in April 2012, and the National Midget Auto Racing Hall of Fame in January 2014; and

WHEREAS, he and Grace had four (4) children and moved to Dolton, Illinois and traveled the country, visiting 48 states, Mexico, and Canada during their marriage and had nine (9) grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, sadly Grace passed away in March 2016 at age 90, and had been married to Wayne for 73 years and known each other just weeks short of 75 years; and

WHEREAS, Wayne will turn 100 years old this coming April, and recently met the newest addition to his family, a great-great-granddaughter.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and Members of the Cook County Board of Commissioners proudly honors Mr. Wayne Adams Sr. for his amazing life and career and his service to the Country, the community and Cook County; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that, this text be spread upon the official proceedings of this Honorable Body and that a suitable copy be presented to Wayne Adams Sr.

THE HONORABLE PETER N. SILVESTRI, COUNTY COMMISSIONERRECOGNIZING SAINT PAUL LUTHERAN CHURCH OF MOUNT PROSPECT FOR ITS HISTORY OF SERVICE AND COMMITMENT TO THE COMMUNITY

WHEREAS, in 1912, five (5) years before the Village of Mount Prospect was incorporated, 17 families organized the Saint Paul Lutheran Church congregation; and

WHEREAS, Saint Paul Lutheran Church has grown to more than 1,400 active family members today, led by Senior Pastor Chris Whitby; and

WHEREAS, the motto of Saint Paul Lutheran Church is “Growing as Family,” representing the church’s belief that a real church is not a building; rather, it is a community where real people can go to find real answers for the real world; and

WHEREAS, Pastor Bo Graham received the Open Arms Award at the Mount Prospect Shining Stars Gala on February 2, 2019. The gala honors those who benefit the community through great works that often go unnoticed; and

WHEREAS, Pastor Bo began the free Breakfast with Baby program four (4) years ago with one (1) mother in attendance and now serves up to 100 people twice per month. The program invites families with children up to two (2) years of age and women who are at least seven (7) months pregnant to come and enjoy a hot meal with their families and shop for free items, such as diapers, toys, and clothes, in the church’s Baby Store; and

WHEREAS, from 2016-2018, the Breakfast with Baby program donated 51,600 diapers to needy families; and

WHEREAS, beyond weekly worship celebrations, Saint Paul Lutheran Church offers ministries for children, junior high students, high school students, young adults, adults, and senior citizens to help all ages grow as individuals and deepen their relationship with God and their community; and

WHEREAS, local mission projects, such as The Church Has Left the Building, bring church members into the community to volunteer their time to help out as needed. Food Collection, P.A.D.S., and Sisters in Stitches offer ongoing additional assistance; and

WHEREAS, the Saint Paul Lutheran Church community also volunteers farther afield through mission trips to the Mexican border and through Workcamp, which takes the senior-high ministry to serve in locales in need around the country; and

WHEREAS, the other ministries in which the Saint Paul Lutheran Church community engages are too numerous to mention, yet each one contributes to the noble mission of the church.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Cook County Board of Commissioners does hereby recognize and thank Saint Paul Lutheran Church of Mount Prospect for its history of service to the community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be presented to members of the Saint Paul Lutheran Church as a token of the county's appreciation.

Approved and adopted this 20th of March 2019.

HONORING ADRIAN WILLOUGHBY FOR A LIFE WELL LIVED

WHEREAS, on February 2, 2019 Adrian Willoughby was honored and celebrated for his many accomplishments and contributions throughout his 39 years of life; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby was a devoted husband, son, brother and uncle who affected countless lives; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby was deeply committed to economic, racial, and social justice and dedicated his life to providing affordable housing, shelter for the homeless, and dignified conditions for those in need; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby was born March 16, 1979 in Belize City, Belize, the oldest of five children. He was known for his playful demeanor with his younger siblings and his independence and sense of style. As a student in Catholic schools in Belize, he insisted to his mother that the brown and yellow button shirts and slacks didn't reflect his style. The compromise was to be able to wear yellow Lacoste polo shirts; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby moved with his family to Evanston at the age of 16. When his father died two (2) years later, it was particularly hard on him; but he embraced his new role as man-of-the-house. His younger sisters remember him as a protector and father-figure; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby was a pioneer in the online world. In 1997, that meant chat rooms where he met his wife, Cindi Dingman, a fellow high school student in California. The long-distance relationship grew and after he graduated from high school, Adrian traveled to California to meet her. They were married in 2002. They eventually moved to Rogers Park, and then into a Reba's Place affordable housing unit so they could save money to purchase their current home in the Fifth Ward; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby attended Oakton Community College and Colorado Technical University, initially majoring in political science. He worked for more than a decade at Grainger where he was in charge of on-boarding, project management, and disaster planning. Adrian was well-loved and respected at Grainger, so much so that they developed an informal motto of WWAD, "What would Adrian do?” At his farewell party, colleagues bid him good-by wearing T-shirts and holding mugs emblazoned with the slogan; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby’s commitment to economic, racial, and social justice led him to seek volunteer opportunities at Reba Place Development Corp., where he was soon hired as a project manager. Three years later, he had risen to the role of Executive Director. Adrian embodied Reba’s mission “to develop safe, decent, and affordable housing, demonstrating how Evanston’s diverse racial and cultural groups can thrive together.” Adrian’s colleagues describe him as a gentle man with strong convictions and dreams of building homes in Evanston that people could afford; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his full-time work, Adrian Willoughby was actively engaged civically, serving as a member of Joining Forces for Affordable Housing - Connections for the Homeless, Interfaith Action of Evanston, multiple political campaigns, and engaging in various advocacy and consultant work; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby’s interest in global and local politics was likely sparked by his uncle, Stuart Leslie, who served as the Belizean Representative to the United Nations, Chief Elections Officer, and Ambassador of Trade in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby was a man of faith. As a parishioner of Vineyard Christian Fellowship of Evanston, he modeled those values in his life. He believed that God had a purpose for each and every one of us, and that it was up to us to strive to identify and embrace that purpose; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby also knew how to have fun. He was a consummate host. No one’s cup ever ran dry at his home. He was a fervid White Sox fan and loved spending time at his lake house looking out over the water, just as he had done as a child. He particularly enjoyed the annual Willoughby summer party, yearly pilgrimages to Myrtle Beach, and camping trips with friends; and

WHEREAS, Adrian Willoughby will be sorely missed by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, Cindi-Marie Willoughby; his mother Judith Willoughby; siblings Deven Harmon, Andrew Willoughby, Desiree Miller and Megan Levy; brothers-in-law Jeff Dingman, Reggie Harman, Patrick Levy, and Eugene Miller III; nephews Wayne Levy and Reggie Harman; and nieces Maddie Harmon and Azyra Tuggle. He is preceded in death by his father Wayne Willoughby, grandfather Lindy Leslie, and father-in-law William Halver Dingman.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of Cook County, on behalf of the 5.2 million residents of Cook County takes great pleasure in honoring and celebrating Adrian Willoughby’s 39 years of life and his many contributions bettering the lives of the residents of Evanston and citizens of Cook County, Illinois; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be spread upon the official proceedings of this Honorable Body and that an official copy of the same be tendered to the family of Adrian Willoughby.

HONORING JESSICA LYNN BRYAR FOR A LIFE WELL LIVED

WHEREAS, Jessica Lynn Bryar was a proud and accomplished employee of the Cook County Public Defender's Office for more than 20 years; and

WHEREAS, after a valiant fight, Jessica Lynn Bryar succumbed to illness on February 3, 2019. She was 46 years old; and

WHEREAS, Jessica earned her Juris Doctor from Loyola University Chicago School of Law and Bachelor of Arts from Boston College. During law school she supplemented her studies by serving as a Street Law Teacher in three (3) Chicago schools and was a Program Coordinator for a Chicago social service agency that serves teen mothers. She also volunteered at First Defense Legal Aid, an organization that provides legal representation and advice to individuals taken into police custody. There, she interviewed clients, documented circumstances of arrest, negotiated for clients' release and facilitated communication with family; and

WHEREAS, as a Williams Fellow throughout law school, she re-developed volunteer teaching program at the Cook County Juvenile Temporary Detention Center. She researched Law Related Education (LRE) programs nation-wide, attended national LRE conferences, assessed residents' needs, developed and co-authored LRE curricula, recruited volunteers, developed and conducted training sessions, implemented program each semester for over 60 student and other professional volunteers and evaluated program's effectiveness; and

WHEREAS, in the summer of 1996, she worked as an extern for the Honorable George M. Marovich, assisting clerks in the drafting of opinions, in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, Jessica joined the Cook County Public Defender's Office as an assistant public defender in December 1998. Jessica worked in the First Municipal, Juvenile Justice, Felony, and Civil Divisions, becoming an Attorney Supervisor in Civil in 2008. As an Attorney Supervisor, she aided in the development of the new Child Protection Conflict Unit. In March 2013, she was promoted to Chief of Civil where she and her staff represented the needs of indigent individuals in the Child Protection and Mental Health divisions of the Circuit Court of Cook County; and

WHEREAS, in 2008, Jessica worked as a consultant to the Juvenile Justice Initiative (JJI) where she aided in the development and presentation of JJI's vision for a model after-care program for Illinois youth exiting the juvenile prison system. She researched and visited nationally recognized after-care programs, coordinated with Illinois Department of Juvenile Justice and the MacArthur Foundation funded Models for Change program and provided support for JJI's legislative advocacy; and

WHEREAS, Jessica was a formidable advocate and vocal champion for children and families in need of representation, especially the most vulnerable. Her leadership, compassion, and dedication to ensuring equity and justice for those she served were inspiring to everyone fortunate enough to know her; and

WHEREAS, one of Jessica's proudest moments was in June 2017, when she graduated from the University of Chicago's Civic Leadership Academy. In addition to being a proud member of the Civic Leadership Academy ('17), she served on the American Bar Association's National Alliance for Parent Representation Steering Committee, and Illinois Department of Children and Family Service's Cook County Transformation Team; and

WHEREAS, Jessica was the youngest of seven (7) children. Her caring, genuine spirit and outgoing personality were evident from a young age. A friend proudly boasts that Jess was the only female member of the Fairfield Flyers, the toughest street "gang" of 7 and 8 year-olds from California to Western and 103rd to 107th. She shot hoops with the boys in the backyards and soon they were cheering her on, at the courts of Fisher Elementary and St. Ignatius College Prep; and

WHEREAS, Jessica had a close relationship with her brothers and sisters and greatly admired both of her parents. She was fortunate to be able to accompany her father, George, on a road trip to Branson, Missouri, where he was honored for his accomplishments as a United States Army surgeon in Vietnam. Her mother, Cice, was her dear friend and confidante. They would frequently attend the Goodman, or matinee movies, or just enjoy an afternoon of shopping; and

WHEREAS, Jessica's 11 years of Jesuit education, combined with her altruistic morals, naturally led her to a career path as a woman for others. She was committed to giving a voice to people who weren't heard, but deserved to be heard. She believed that everybody had the right to feel valued, and safe, and loved; and

WHEREAS, Jessica was loved and respected by a host of family, friends, and colleagues who appreciated her remarkable and steady kindness and grace, her hearty laugh, and her quiet but indomitable inner strength. Her passionate celebration of life, positive spirit, and vibrant outlook left a lasting impression on all; and

WHEREAS, she is survived by parents Cicely Bryar and George Bryar; siblings Sharon (Bob) Eichinger, Julie (Tom) Smith, Liz (Terry) Raser, Paul (Jen), Colin (Sarah) and Kevin (Denise) Bryar. She was “Fancy Aunt Jess” to 16 nieces and nephews.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Commissioners of Cook County, on behalf of the 5.2 million residents of Cook County takes great pleasure in honoring and celebrating Jessica Bryar’s life and her many contributions bettering the lives of the citizens of Cook County, Illinois; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be spread upon the official proceedings of this Honorable Body and that an official copy of the same be tendered to the family of Jessica Bryar.

CONGRATULATING THE MAINE WEST HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM
ON THEIR 2019 IHSA GIRLS 4A BASKETBALL STATE CHAMPIONSHIP
AND UNDEFEATED 35-0 SEASON

WHEREAS, the members of the Cook County Board of Commissioners are proud to recognize excellence in high school athletics and the importance of team sports in developing the qualities of teamwork, respect, hard work and dedication in young adults; and

WHEREAS, the Maine West Warriors Girls Basketball Team displayed all of those qualities and worked together to achieve a remarkable season by going a perfect 35-0 and earning the Warriors the 2019 Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Girls 4A Basketball State Championship; and

WHEREAS, the 2019 Maine West Girls Basketball Team has joined elite company by becoming the first undefeated girls champion since Quincy Notre Dame went 30-0 in 3A in 2013 and the first in 4A since Whitney Young went 34-0 in 2012; and

WHEREAS, the Warriors achieved their perfect 35-0 record by defeating 33 of 35 opponents by 10 points or more and concluded their amazing season by defeating Mother McAuley 58-46 in the 4A Final to clinch the title of State Champions; and

WHEREAS, the 2019 4A state title marked the second state championship for the Maine West Girls Basketball program and the 35-0 undefeated season also matched the perfect 35-0 season of the 1988 Maine West Girls Basketball state champions; and

WHEREAS, team members Melissa Gomez, Sarah Magnoni, Brianna Hernandez, Jane Rothweiler, Rachel Kent, Maria Buniao, Ellie Centella, Yessenia Vilchis, Dylan Van Fleet, Vanessa Reyes, Jocelyn Jacob, Lena Albo, Angela Dugalic, Rachel Gorcyca and Jade Thomas displayed exceptional teamwork, commitment and brilliant execution on the basketball court in all 35 games of their season; and

WHEREAS, Head Coach Kim de Marigny and Assistant Coaches Lance Newman, Bryan Aloisio, Jerry Stonequist are to be congratulated for providing exemplary instruction and leadership in guiding the Maine West Girls Basketball Team through a tremendous season and impressive championship run; and

WHEREAS, the Maine West Warriors Girls Basketball program has had a rich and storied history for more than 30 years where it was grown and nurtured into an elite program under the leadership of IHSA Hall of Fame coach Derril Kipp, and now that successful tradition carries on under Head Coach Kim de Marigny.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the Cook County Board of Commissioners join their family, friends, school and community in congratulating the team members and coaching staff of the Maine West Warriors Girls Basketball Team on their outstanding achievements and their extraordinary level of teamwork, respect, hard work and dedication; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Resolution be spread across the official text of the proceedings of this honorable body and that suitable copies hereof be presented to each member of the team and coaching staff.

Approved and adopted this 20th of March 2019.

HONORING AND RECOGNIZING CHICAGO BOOKS TO WOMEN IN PRISON

WHEREAS, Chicago Books to Women in Prison is a Chicago-based non-profit that collects and distributes donated paperback books free of charge to women, trans- and nonbinary people behind bars nationwide, including women detained at the Cook County Jail; and

WHEREAS, Chicago Books to Women in Prison was founded in 2002 by Nicole Bussard, Jack Slowriver, Arline Welty and Jodi Ziesemer; and

WHEREAS, Chicago Books to Women in Prison has been integral in providing an opportunity for women, trans- and nonbinary people behind bars to continue their education, explore their interests, get healthier, understand their rights, and plan for and achieve successful reentry into their communities; and

WHEREAS, books are often a lifeline: an escape into fictional worlds, creative activity and entertainment; a guide to learning a new hobby or a new language or studying for the general educational development (GED); and a chance to exercise the mind by solving puzzles such as crosswords, word-searches and sudoku or writing poems or stories; and

WHEREAS, in 2018, Chicago Books to Women in Prison provided nearly 13,500 books and composition books to women, trans- and nonbinary people in prisons and jails, including the Cook County Jail; and

WHEREAS, Chicago Books to Women in Prison collaborated with the Sex Workers Outreach Project Behind Bars in presenting at the 2018 International Human Trafficking and Social Justice Conference; and

WHEREAS, Chicago Books to Women in Prison served on the statewide Women's Justice Task Force, charged with providing guidance on implementation of the groundbreaking Women's Correctional Services Act; and

WHEREAS, one of the most important accomplishments of Chicago Books to Women in Prison is the trust they've earned year after year by the women, trans- and nonbinary people they serve.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the residents of Cook County, hereby honor and recognize Chicago Books to Women in Prison for all they contribute to women, trans- and nonbinary people behind bars in Cook County and across the nation; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be tendered to Chicago Books to Women in Prison as a means of communicating our appreciation.

Approved and adopted this 20th of March 2019.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE AND CAREER OF PEGGY A. MONTES

WHEREAS, Peggy A. Montes, Chairperson of the Cook County Commission on Women's Issues, announced the end of her service to the residents of Cook County on March 7, 2019; and

WHEREAS, Peggy is a native Chicagoan, former teacher, volunteer, philanthropist, and a respected and recognized advocate in the community who has devoted her life to serving her fellow citizens, especially women, girls and disadvantaged children; and

WHEREAS, Peggy is known for coordinating the Women's Network that assisted in electing Harold Washington as the first African American Mayor of City of Chicago and the first Chairperson of the City of Chicago's Commission on Women's Issues; and

WHEREAS, in August 1993, Cook County Board Commissioner John H. Stroger, Jr met with Peggy and requested that she develop a women's committee; and

WHEREAS, upon his election to the position of Cook County Board President, John H. Stroger, Jr sponsored a Resolution of the Cook County Board on October 5, 1993 that established the Cook County Women's Commission - a first for Cook County Government; and

WHEREAS, on March 4, 1994, a Resolution was passed unanimously by the Cook County Board of Commissioners that created the first Cook County Commission on Women's Issues; and

WHEREAS, the first Women's Commissioners were appointed in 1995, 17 Commissioners, one (1) representing each county district, with Peggy appointed as Fourth District Commissioner and Chairperson; and

WHEREAS, on April 9, 2008, the Cook County Board passed a Resolution to reorganize and establish the "new" Cook County Commission on Women's Issues, with the Commission now consisting of twenty-one board members, one from each county district and four at-large members appointed by the President of the Board; and

WHEREAS, Peggy was the driving force behind the creation of the very first Unsung Heroine Award for the women of Cook County, and on March 16, 2010, the Board of Commissioners acknowledged Ms. Montes in a special way by renaming the award in her honor as the "Peggy A. Montes Unsung Heroine Award"; and

WHEREAS, the Commission works to elevate the status of women and girls of Cook County, improve the delivery of services to women and their families, and eliminate inequalities in laws, practices and conditions that impact Cook County women and girls; and

WHEREAS, beyond her service to the residents of Cook County, Peggy is the founder and president of the first and only African American children's museum in the country, the Bronzeville Children's Museum, which was founded on August 20, 1993; and

WHEREAS, Peggy is also a member of the Illinois Arts Council and Illinois Book Advisory Committee, a founding member of the Leadership Advisory Committee of the Chicago Art Institute and a member of the Black Creativity Advisory Council of the Museum of Science and Industry; and

WHEREAS, Peggy's work for the women and children of Cook County does not stop at retirement, and she will continue to be a civic and cultural leader of the community; and

WHEREAS, Peggy will be sorely missed by the Cook County Commission on Women's Issues, colleagues and friends in Cook County.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the residents of Cook County, do recognize Peggy A. Montes for all that she has contributed to Cook County and wish her all the best on her retirement and future endeavors; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be tendered to Peggy A. Montes as a means of communicating our appreciation for her service.

Approved and adopted this 20th of March 2019.
