PROPOSED ORDINANCE AMENDMENT

JUNETEENTH RECOGNIZED AS A COOK COUNTY HOLIDAY

WHEREAS, On January 1, 1863 President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation; and

WHEREAS, That established that all enslaved people in Confederate states and against the Union shall be set free from slavery; and

WHEREAS, Many slave owners in the state of Texas did not release their slaves; and

WHEREAS, On June 19th, 1865, General Gordon Grainger and his troops made their way to Galveston, Texas after the surrender of General Robert E. Lee on Appotomox, Virginia. Upon General Grainger's arrival in Texas soil, he issued Generals Order No. 3; and

WHEREAS, This order officially declared the immediate release and freedom of the remainder of slaves located in Texas; and

WHEREAS, Slaves that were forcefully held captive almost three years after the Emancipation Proclamation was issued were finally pronounced freemen; and

WHEREAS, The year following 1865, freedmen in Texas organized the first of what became the annual celebration of "Jubilee Day" on June 19. In the ensuing decades, Juneteenth commemorations featured music, barbecues, prayer services and other activities; and

WHEREAS, The last of the people that were freed from slavery in Texas, made it a custom to go back to Galveston to celebrate their freedom. These former slaves pioneered and spread the celebration of Juneteenth throughout the entirety of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Although slaves were considered freemen, they continued to receive harsh treatment and were discriminated against by a large population of America; and

WHEREAS, Jim Crow Laws were placed to enforce the racial segregation of African- Americans and were often barred from participating in the celebration of Juneteenth; and

WHEREAS, This led to the eventual purchase of private lands, such as Emancipation Park in Houston, Texas, and the Booker T. Washington Park in Mexia, Texas for individuals to celebrate Juneteenth; and

WHEREAS, June 19 is now officially recognized as a ceremonial holiday in forty-seven of the fifty states, with Texas being the first to declare Juneteenth a state holiday in 1980; and

WHEREAS, Today, the celebration of Juneteenth is stronger than ever before, as it's been fueled by the unfortunate, but extremely impactful deaths of African -Americans, such as George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery, and countless more victims; and

WHEREAS, Slavery and has had brutal impacts on African Americans and their families including but not limited to disparities in economics, healthcare, housing, the pursuit of happiness, education and the social determinants of health; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED, by Cook County, President and Board of Commissioners shall promote Juneteenth as a day of education partnering with organizations and community to celebrate contribution of the many African- Americans from the past and today whose families were liberated, thereby allowing them to be free today; and
