PROPOSED ORDINANCE AMENDMENT

JUNETEENTH RECOGNIZED AS A COOK COUNTY HOLIDAY

WHEREAS, On January 1, 1863, President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation; and

WHEREAS, The Emancipation Proclamation established that all enslaved people in Confederate states and against the Union shall be set free from slavery; and

WHEREAS, Many slave owners in the state of Texas did not release their slaves; and

WHEREAS, On June 19th, 1865, General Gordan Grainger and his troops made their way to Galveston, Texas after the surrender of General Robert E. Lee on Appomattox, Virginia. Upon General Grainger’s arrival in Texas soil, he issued Generals Order No. 3; and

WHEREAS, This order officially declared the immediate release and freedom of the remainder of slaves located in Texas; and

WHEREAS, Slaves that were forcefully held captive for almost three years after the Emancipation Proclamation was issued were finally pronounced freemen; and

WHEREAS, In 1866, freedmen in Texas organized the first of what became the annual celebration of "Jubilee Day" on June 19. In the ensuing decades, Juneteenth commemorations featured music, ethnic cuisines, prayer services, and other activities; and

WHEREAS, The last of the people, that were freed from slavery in Texas, made it a custom to go back to Galveston to celebrate their freedom. These former slaves pioneered and spread the celebration of Juneteenth throughout the entirety of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Although slaves were considered freemen, they continued to receive harsh treatment and were discriminated against by a large population of America; and

WHEREAS, Jim Crow Laws were placed to enforce the racial segregation of African-Americans and were often barred from participating in the celebration of Juneteenth; and

WHEREAS, This led to the eventual purchase of private lands, such as Emancipation Park in Houston, Texas and the Booker T. Washington Park in Mexia, Texas, for individuals to celebrate Juneteenth; and

WHEREAS, June 19, is now officially recognized as a ceremonial holiday in forty-seven of the fifty states, with Texas being the first to declare Juneteenth a state holiday in 1980; and

WHEREAS, Today, the celebration of Juneteenth is stronger than ever before, as it has been fueled by the unfortunate, but extremely impactful deaths of African-Americans, such as George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, Ahmaud Arbery, and countless more victims; and

WHEREAS, Slavery has had brutal impacts on African-Americans and their families including but not limited to disparities in economics, healthcare, housing, the pursuit of happiness, education, and the social determinants of health; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED, by Cook County, President, and Board of Commissioners shall promote Juneteenth as a day of education partnering with organizations and communities to celebrate contribution of the many African Americans from the past and today whose families were liberated, thereby allowing them to be free today; and

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED, by the Cook County Board of Commissioners, that Chapter 44 HUMAN RESOURCES, ARTICLE III. VACATION AND SICK LEAVE, SEC. 44.92 of the Cook County Code is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 44.92. Designation of Holidays

PROPOSED ORDINANCE

COOK COUNTY RECORDS COMPLIANCE AND ARCHIVES ORDINANCE

BE IT ORDAINED, by the Cook County Board of Commissioners, that Chapter 2 Administration, Article V - Departments and Similar Agencies, Division 4 - Records Compliance, Sections 2-441-2-455 of the Cook County Code, is hereby established as follows:

Sec. 2-441. Cook County Records Compliance and Archives Ordinance.

- (a) Short title. This Division shall be known and may be cited as the Cook County Records Compliance and Archives Ordinance.
- (b) Policy. Cook County government will manage the security, retention, storage and disposition of its records, in all formats and media, in accordance with all applicable legal, regulatory and organizational requirements. Records shall be retained until the expiration of the applicable retention period and then destroyed in accordance with the Bureau of Administration, Records Management Administration (“RMA”), unless subject to a legal hold or properly archived by the Cook County Historic Records and Archives Office (“CARO”).
- (c) Purpose. The purpose of this Ordinance is to enhance the efficient and economical management of local records in the daily recordkeeping activities of Cook County government, establish a process for identification, creation and maintenance of historically significant archival material and facilitate and expedite governmental operations, in accordance with the Illinois Local Records Act, 50 ILCS 205/1 et seq., the Illinois Administrative Code and other applicable laws.
- (d) Applicability. This Ordinance governs all Cook County Agencies. All Agencies are required to ensure that relevant County Government records generated by Cook County employees, for the sake of completing work related functions during employment term(s) for the County, and subject to best practices and applicable law, including procedures promulgated by RMA and CARO, are:

- (1) Retained by Cook County Government;

- (2) Not permitted to be donated or gifted to institutions outside of the County;
- (3) Returned to the County, if in the personal domain of a Cook County employee;
- (4) Organized in a manner that facilitates access and retrieval;
- (5) Stored at approved locations;
- (6) Secured to protect sensitive and personal information from unauthorized access and disclosure;
- (7) Preserved in permanent storage if they are required to be retained permanently;
- (8) Maintained by employee(s) assigned as a Point of Contact and/or Historic Archives Liaison;
- (9) Appropriately disposed of after they have met retention requirements and received authorization for destruction;

(e) Conflict. This Ordinance shall be construed so as not to conflict with applicable Federal or State laws, rules or regulations. Nothing in this Ordinance shall authorize any County agency to impose any duties or obligations in conflict with limitations on authority established by State or federal law at the time such agency action is taken. The County shall suspend enforcement of this Ordinance to the extent that said enforcement would conflict with any preemptive State or federal legislation subsequently adopted.

Items which are transferred to CARO are not to be disposed of without State approval. Artifacts such as pictures, time capsules, building façade, etc., which are donated to CARO are not regulated by the Local Records Act and will remain in the custody of CARO.
- (c) If documents are transferred to CARO to conduct a historical evaluation, CARO, as the new records custodian on behalf of the agency, will prepare a disposal application. With historical evaluation satisfied, CARO notifies the RMA and the RMA processes the application accordingly and agency presents request at Local Records Commission meeting.
- (d) In no instance, beyond records of its own creation, is CARO to inherit any other County agency's role and responsibility for active, current recordkeeping. The Point of Contact in each County department is responsible for the documentation of the department's Archival Materials prior to depositing the Archival Materials with CARO. CARO shall be headed by the Manager of Archives, who shall report directly to the Cook County Secretary of the Board.

Sec. 2-444. Role of the Manager of Archives

The Manager of Archives shall:

- (a) Administer, supervise and monitor requirements with respect to the collection and preservation of Archival Materials under this Ordinance, including, but not limited to, inter-agency transfers of Archival Material, donations of Archival Material from external sources and post-custodial care of the Archive Materials.
- (b) Establish guidelines and policies to support the governance of the CARO archival holdings and access through the CARO office.
- (c) Work cooperatively with the Records Management Administrator as to establish documentation and methods to categorize and retrieve Archive materials as necessary.
- (d) Promulgate CARO rules and procedures which govern this section as needed.

Sec. 2-445. Records Management Administrator (RMA).

- (a) Unless otherwise stated, rules and regulations promulgated in support of County compliance with the Local Records Act shall be administered, supervised and monitored by the Records Management Administrator.
- (b) The RMA shall formulate a training program to ensure the Point of Contact and Historic Archives Liaison within each agency comply with the Local Records Act and County rules and regulations pertaining to the retention and disposition of local records and preservation of archives.

Sec. 2-446. Records Media.

- (a) Original Format. To preserve a record's integrity, records should generally be retained in their original format. Agencies may create and retain copies in other formats to ensure availability and readability.
- (b) Electronic Records. For records approved for retention in electronic format, the electronic records shall be the official record if the information is transferred into a document management system that meets requirements prescribed by the Illinois Local Records Act.
- (c) Other. Agencies may adopt additional recordkeeping procedures as necessary to address specific records management issues that may exist in their functional area, subject to approval by the RMA.

Sec. 2-447. Storage and Organization.

- (a) Storage. Records must be stored in a location authorized by the RMA, at a temperature between 68°F/20°C to 76°F/24.4°C and a relative humidity of 35 to 55 percent.
- (b) Organization. Records must be stored in an organized manner to make sure they are easily accessible. Agencies shall use the standard naming conventions (Record Series) provided in the current Retention Schedule.

Sec. 2-448. Electronic Mail (e-mail).

Retention and disposal of e-mail transmitted or received via computer access provided by Cook County Government will be governed in accordance with established County policies and may be subject to the applicable Records Retention Schedule for e-mails which are considered Official Records.

Sec. 2-449. Retention and Disposition.

- (a) In General. All individuals shall ensure proper classification, retention and disposal of records in their possession, and control and comply with legal hold requirements where applicable; and are prohibited from causing, allowing, or contributing to the disposal of records in their possession and control, except with advanced written approval from the Local Records Commission.
- (b) Retention. All Agencies are required to ensure records are retained if they are needed for legal, regulatory or business purposes, and appropriately disposed of upon expiration of the applicable retention period, unless subject to a legal hold or archived by CARO.
- (c) Historic Value. Agencies in possession of any other record or Artifact believed to possess historical value, shall notify CARO and RMA to review the record or Artifact and transfer it to CARO and the appropriate storage facility. If documents are transferred to CARO to conduct an historical evaluation, CARO, as the new records custodian on behalf of the agency, will prepare a disposal application on an as needed basis.
- (d) Disposal Certificate.
 - (1) All Agencies are required to maintain current applications for authority to dispose of local records. On an annual basis, all Agencies are required to submit Records Disposal Certificates. Each agency shall submit to the RMA a Disposal Certificate that lists records that have met the recommended retention schedule as provided by the Local Records Commission and are no longer needed in the transaction of public business. Such records should not warrant further preservation for legal, investigatory, or historical purposes.
 - (2) CARO shall initiate an evaluation of the records comprising the disposal application for historic purposes. An agency may transfer custody of documents to CARO as needed, should removal of documents from spaces controlled by the agency be the top priority for initiating the disposal application.
 - (3) Upon approval of such Disposal Certificates by the Commission, all agencies are required to dispose of specified records within six (6) months. In furtherance of these objectives, each Department Head shall designate an employee to serve as Point of Contact to the RMA.

(4) The Point of Contact will assist the RMA with identifying and defining the legal, regulatory, and business requirements used to determine the applicable retention periods of the agency's records. The Point of Contact may be the agency's Legal Representative.

(e) Legal hold. When a Department Head reasonably foresees or knows of litigation, or is required to preserve records that would otherwise be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of this policy to meet other business, legal, or regulatory requirements, the Department Head (or designee) shall put into place a legal hold and notify the RMA and the records should not be disposed of until the legal hold is released.

Sec. 2-450. Confidentiality.

Cook County shall maintain the confidentiality of Personally Identifiable Information, to the extent required by applicable law, as described in the Personal Information Protection Act, 815 ILCS 530/30. Personal information does not include publicly available information that is lawfully made available to the general public from federal, State, or local government records.

Sec. 2-451. Penalties.

Any person who knowingly, without lawful authority and with the intent to defraud any party, public officer, or entity, alters, destroys, defaces, removes, or conceals any public record commits a Class 4 felony. In addition, non-compliance with this Article may result in discipline, up to and including discharge, in accordance with the County or applicable agency personnel rules and/or the applicable collective bargaining agreement. Storage of records beyond their retention period may result in chargebacks to the agency for related costs. The RMA shall have the authority to deny a request for an increase of space for the storage of records made to the Space Allocation Committee, in the event of noncompliance with this Ordinance.

Sec. 2-452 - Sec. 2-455. Reserved.

Effective date: This ordinance shall be in effect immediately upon adoption

Sec. 2-443. Cook County Historic Records and Archives Office (CARO).

(a) The Cook County Historic Records and Archives Office-in collaboration with County Agencies and the Records Management Administrator and in accordance with the Illinois Local Records Act and other applicable laws- shall identify County records and Artifacts that can be classified as Archive Materials.

(b) Historic Archives Liaisons shall work with their Point of Contact counterpart, if the roles are assigned to separate individuals within the agency, to identify documents, local records and records which are of historic value, as judged by CARO. Items which are transferred to CARO are not to be disposed of without State approval. Artifacts such as pictures, time capsules, building façade, etc., which are donated to CARO are not regulated by the Local Records Act and will remain in the custody of CARO.

(c) If documents are transferred to CARO to conduct a historical evaluation, CARO, as the new records custodian on behalf of the agency, will prepare a disposal application. With historical evaluation satisfied, CARO notifies the RMA and the RMA processes the application accordingly and agency presents request at Local Records Commission meeting.

(d) In no instance, beyond records of its own creation, is CARO to inherit any other County agency's role and responsibility for active, current recordkeeping. The Point of Contact in each County department is responsible for the documentation of the department's Archival Materials prior to depositing the Archival Materials with CARO. CARO shall be headed by the Manager of Archives, who shall report directly to the Cook County Secretary of the Board.

Sec. 2-444. Role of the Manager of Archives

The Manager of Archives shall:

(a) Administer, supervise and monitor requirements with respect to the collection and preservation of Archival Materials under this Ordinance, including, but not limited to, inter-agency transfers of Archival Material, donations of Archival Material from external sources and post-custodial care of the Archive Materials.

(b) Establish guidelines and policies to support the governance of the CARO archival holdings and access through the CARO office.

(c) Work cooperatively with the Records Management Administrator as to establish documentation and methods to categorize and retrieve Archive materials as necessary.

- (d) Promulgate CARO rules and procedures which govern this section as needed.

Sec. 2-445. Records Management Administrator (RMA).

- (a) Unless otherwise stated, rules and regulations promulgated in support of County compliance with the Local Records Act shall be administered, supervised and monitored by the Records Management Administrator.
- (b) The RMA shall formulate a training program to ensure the Point of Contact and Historic Archives Liaison within each agency comply with the Local Records Act and County rules and regulations pertaining to the retention and disposition of local records and preservation of archives.

Sec. 2-446. Records Media.

- (a) Original Format. To preserve a record's integrity, records should generally be retained in their original format. Agencies may create and retain copies in other formats to ensure availability and readability.
- (b) Digitized Electronic Material. For records approved for retention in electronic format, the electronic records shall be the official record if the information is transferred into a document management system that meets the requirements prescribed by the Illinois Local Records Act.
- (c) Other. Agencies may adopt additional recordkeeping procedures as necessary to address specific records management issues that may exist in their functional area, subject to approval by the RMA.

Sec. 2-447. Storage and Organization.

- (a) Storage. Records must be stored in a location authorized by the RMA, at a temperature between 68°F/20°C to 76° F/24.4°C and a relative humidity of 35 to 55 percent.
- (b) Organization. Records must be stored in an organized manner to make sure they are easily accessible. Agencies shall use the standard naming conventions (Record Series) provided in the current Retention Schedule.

Sec. 2-448. Reserved.

Sec. 2-449. Retention and Disposition.

- (a) In General. All individuals shall ensure proper classification, retention and disposal of records in their possession, and control and comply with legal hold requirements where applicable; and are prohibited from causing, allowing, or contributing to the disposal of records in their possession and control, except with advanced written approval from the Local Records

Commission.

- (b) Retention. All Agencies are required to ensure records are retained if they are needed for legal, regulatory or business purposes, and appropriately disposed of upon expiration of the applicable retention period, unless subject to a legal hold or archived by CARO.
- (c) Historic Value. Agencies in possession of any other record or Artifact believed to possess historical value, shall notify CARO and RMA to review the record or Artifact and transfer it to CARO and the appropriate storage facility. If documents are transferred to CARO to conduct an historical evaluation, CARO, as the new records custodian on behalf of the agency, will prepare a disposal application on an as needed basis.
- (d) Disposal Certificate.
- (1) All Agencies are required to maintain current applications for authority to dispose of local records. On an annual basis, all Agencies are required to submit Records Disposal Certificates. Each agency shall submit to the RMA a Disposal Certificate that lists records that have met the recommended retention schedule as provided by the Local Records Commission and are no longer needed in the transaction of public business. Such records should not warrant further preservation for legal, investigatory, or historical purposes.
 - (2) CARO shall initiate an evaluation of the records comprising the disposal application for historic purposes. An agency may transfer custody of documents to CARO as needed, should removal of documents from spaces controlled by the agency be the top priority for initiating the disposal application.
 - (3) Upon approval of such Disposal Certificates by the Commission, all agencies are required to dispose of specified records within six (6) months. In furtherance of these objectives, each Department Head shall designate an employee to serve as Point of Contact to the RMA.
 - (4) The Point of Contact will assist the RMA with identifying and defining the legal, regulatory, and business requirements used to determine the applicable retention periods of the agency's records. The Point of Contact may be the agency's Legal Representative.
- (e) Legal hold. When a Department Head reasonably foresees or knows of litigation, or is required to preserve records that would otherwise be disposed of pursuant to the provisions of this policy to meet other business, legal, or regulatory requirements, the Department Head (or designee) shall put into place a legal hold and notify the RMA and the records should not be disposed of until the legal hold is released.

Sec. 2-450. Confidentiality.

Cook County shall maintain the confidentiality of Personally Identifiable Information, to the extent required by applicable law, as described in the Personal Information Protection Act, 815 ILCS 530/30. Personal information does not include publicly available information that is lawfully made available to the general public from federal, State, or local government records.

Sec. 2-451. Penalties.

Any person who knowingly, without lawful authority and with the intent to defraud any party, public officer, or entity, alters, destroys, defaces, removes, or conceals any public record commits a Class 4 felony. In addition, non-compliance with this Article may result in discipline, up to and including discharge, in accordance with the County or applicable agency personnel rules and/or the applicable collective bargaining agreement. Storage of records beyond their retention period may result in chargebacks to the agency for related costs. The RMA shall have the authority to deny a request for an increase of space for the storage of records made to the Space Allocation Committee, in the event of noncompliance with this Ordinance.

Sec. 2-452 - Sec. 2-455. Reserved.
