

Board of Commissioners of Cook County

118 North Clark Street
Chicago, IL

Legislation Details (With Text)

File #:	24-1696	Version:	1	Name:	HONORING ANGELICA GREEN, COMMUNITY ORGANIZER
Type:	Consent Calendar Resolution	Status:			Approved
File created:	2/22/2024	In control:			Board of Commissioners
On agenda:	2/29/2024	Final action:			2/29/2024
Title:	PROPOSED RESOLUTION

HONORING ANGELICA GREEN, COMMUNITY ORGANIZER

WHEREAS, Angelica Green grew up in the Austin neighborhood on the City of Chicago's West Side, where her village of neighbors helped her parents shape her into the woman she is today; and

WHEREAS, Angelica has been a dedicated community organizer and an advocate who uplifts the concerns of her neighbors and who works hard to bring people together; and

WHEREAS, Angelica's values are rooted in family, community, and integrity. She believes that community is not just a group of individuals living in an area but an extension of family - one that works together to create an enriching and thriving environment; and

WHEREAS, Angelica has been instrumental in starting up the first Police District Council for the 25th District, where she works to make her community safer by listening to her neighbors, organizing meetings to discuss concerns, and championing community-based solutions to violence in the 25th Police District; and

WHEREAS, Angelica has collaborated with local officials and community groups to increase the quality of life in her community by advocating for community funding and resources, becoming an ambassador for the neighborhood policing initiative, and using the 25th District Police Council meetings as a space to share skills like emergency first response skills and Know Your Rights trainings; and

WHEREAS, Angelica has been a dedicated advocate for people with developmental and intellectual disabilities through her work at the Chicago non-profit organization Misericordia; and

WHEREAS, Angelica founded her own non-profit - the proactive youth connection café - which serves young people in the Austin community and delivers resources and programs to youth to build a safer community; and

WHEREAS, what Angelica is most proud of is being a mother of three kind and intelligent children; and

WHEREAS, Angelica is an amazing example of what love for community can look like in action.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Cook County President and the Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the residents of the county, do hereby honor Angelica Green as this year's Black Influential Leader of the 8th District for her great contributions, dedication, and service to the residents of the 8th District and all of Cook County.

Sponsors: ANTHONY J. QUEZADA

Indexes:

Code sections:

Attachments:

Date	Ver.	Action By	Action	Result
2/29/2024	1	Board of Commissioners	approve	Pass

PROPOSED RESOLUTION

HONORING ANGELICA GREEN, COMMUNITY ORGANIZER

WHEREAS, Angelica Green grew up in the Austin neighborhood on the City of Chicago’s West Side, where her village of neighbors helped her parents shape her into the woman she is today; and

WHEREAS, Angelica has been a dedicated community organizer and an advocate who uplifts the concerns of her neighbors and who works hard to bring people together; and

WHEREAS, Angelica’s values are rooted in family, community, and integrity. She believes that community is not just a group of individuals living in an area but an extension of family - one that works together to create an enriching and thriving environment; and

WHEREAS, Angelica has been instrumental in starting up the first Police District Council for the 25th District, where she works to make her community safer by listening to her neighbors, organizing meetings to discuss concerns, and championing community-based solutions to violence in the 25th Police District; and

WHEREAS, Angelica has collaborated with local officials and community groups to increase the quality of life in her community by advocating for community funding and resources, becoming an ambassador for the neighborhood policing initiative, and using the 25th District Police Council meetings as a space to share skills like emergency first response skills and Know Your Rights trainings; and

WHEREAS, Angelica has been a dedicated advocate for people with developmental and intellectual disabilities through her work at the Chicago non-profit organization Misericordia; and

WHEREAS, Angelica founded her own non-profit - the proactive youth connection café - which serves young people in the Austin community and delivers resources and programs to youth to build a safer community; and

WHEREAS, what Angelica is most proud of is being a mother of three kind and intelligent children; and

WHEREAS, Angelica is an amazing example of what love for community can look like in action.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Cook County President and the Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the residents of the county, do hereby honor Angelica Green as this year’s Black Influential Leader of the 8th District for her great contributions, dedication, and service to the residents of the 8th District and all of Cook County.