

Board of Commissioners of Cook County

118 North Clark Street
Chicago, IL

Legislation Details (With Text)

---

File #:	18-2075	Version:	1	Name:	HONORING THE LIFE OF PAUL BOOTH, AUTHOR, VISIONARY LABOR LEADER, STRATEGIST AND SOCIAL JUSTICE ACTIVIST. IN MEMORIAM.
Type:	Consent Calendar Resolution	Status:			Approved
File created:	2/2/2018	In control:			Board of Commissioners
On agenda:	2/6/2018	Final action:			2/6/2018
Title:	PROPOSED RESOLUTION

HONORING THE LIFE OF PAUL BOOTH, AUTHOR, VISIONARY LABOR LEADER, STRATEGIST AND SOCIAL JUSTICE ACTIVIST. IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, Paul Booth, an influential Illinois labor leader and primary architect of the first big march against the war in Vietnam, died Wednesday, January 17, 2018 at 74; and

WHEREAS, in the early 1970s, as assistant director of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Council 31, Mr. Booth helped negotiate the first contracts for Illinois state workers, guaranteeing government workers a right to union representation; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Booth joined the labor movement in 1966 as research director for the United Packinghouse Workers of America. He became organizing director and was affiliated for more than four decades with AFSCME, one of the country's biggest labor unions, where he devised the nation's very first living-wage campaign; and

WHEREAS, before joining the union, Mr. Booth was a national leader of Students for a Democratic Society and in 1965 helped SDS organize the first major march on Washington, D.C., to oppose the Vietnam War, drawing about 15,000 students. He popularized the slogan "Build, Not Burn" to promote civilian public service work as an alternative to the military draft; and

WHEREAS, a published author, Mr. Booth was a strategist who often wrote about the democratic process as he did in his last writing, in the Prospect, where he argued for the strategic importance of independent voters; and

WHEREAS, Paul Robert Booth was born on June 7, 1943, in Washington. His father, Philip Booth, worked for the Labor Department and drafted Social Security legislation and programs for migrant workers. His mother was the former Mary Markowitz; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Booth leaves a profound mark on the world of organizing and activism in which he spent his working life.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the residents of Cook County, does hereby offer its deepest condolences and most heartfelt sympathy to the family of Paul Booth, to the government workers of Illinois and to his friends and colleagues; and honor the life and memory of this outstanding leader by adopting this resolution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this text be spread upon the official proceeding of this Honorable Body, and a suitable copy of the same be tendered to Mr. Booth's immediate family; his wife Heather Booth, sons Eugene Victor Booth and Daniel Garrison Booth, his brother Michael, and his five grandchildren.

Sponsors: LUIS ARROYO JR, TONI PRECKWINKLE (President), RICHARD R. BOYKIN, JERRY BUTLER,

JOHN P. DALEY, DENNIS DEER, JOHN A. FRITCHEY, BRIDGET GAINER, JESÚS G. GARCÍA, GREGG GOSLIN, EDWARD M. MOODY, STANLEY MOORE, SEAN M. MORRISON, TIMOTHY O. SCHNEIDER, PETER N. SILVESTRI, DEBORAH SIMS, LARRY SUFFREDIN, JEFFREY R. TOBOLSKI

Indexes:

Code sections:

Attachments:

Date	Ver.	Action By	Action	Result
2/6/2018	1	Board of Commissioners	approve	Pass

PROPOSED RESOLUTION

HONORING THE LIFE OF PAUL BOOTH, AUTHOR, VISIONARY LABOR LEADER, STRATEGIST AND SOCIAL JUSTICE ACTIVIST. IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, Paul Booth, an influential Illinois labor leader and primary architect of the first big march against the war in Vietnam, died Wednesday, January 17, 2018 at 74; and

WHEREAS, in the early 1970s, as assistant director of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Council 31, Mr. Booth helped negotiate the first contracts for Illinois state workers, guaranteeing government workers a right to union representation; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Booth joined the labor movement in 1966 as research director for the United Packinghouse Workers of America. He became organizing director and was affiliated for more than four decades with AFSCME, one of the country’s biggest labor unions, where he devised the nation’s very first living-wage campaign; and

WHEREAS, before joining the union, Mr. Booth was a national leader of Students for a Democratic Society and in 1965 helped SDS organize the first major march on Washington, D.C., to oppose the Vietnam War, drawing about 15,000 students. He popularized the slogan “Build, Not Burn” to promote civilian public service work as an alternative to the military draft; and

WHEREAS, a published author, Mr. Booth was a strategist who often wrote about the democratic process as he did in his last writing, in the Prospect, where he argued for the strategic importance of independent voters; and

WHEREAS, Paul Robert Booth was born on June 7, 1943, in Washington. His father, Philip Booth, worked for the Labor Department and drafted Social Security legislation and programs for migrant workers. His mother was the former Mary Markowitz; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Booth leaves a profound mark on the world of organizing and activism in which he spent his working life.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners, on behalf of the residents of Cook County, does hereby offer its deepest condolences and most heartfelt sympathy to the family of Paul Booth, to the government workers of Illinois and to his friends and colleagues; and honor the life and memory of this outstanding leader by adopting this resolution; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this text be spread upon the official proceeding of this Honorable Body, and a suitable copy of the same be tendered to Mr. Booth’s immediate family; his wife Heather Booth, sons Eugene Victor Booth and Daniel Garrison Booth, his brother Michael, and his five grandchildren.