File created: 2/28/2018      In control: Finance Committee
On agenda: 3/14/2018      Final action: 4/25/2018
Title: PROPOSED AGREEMENT

Department(s): Revenue

Other Part(ies): Allegiance Protection Group, Inc., New York, New York

Request: Authorization to enter into an interagency agreement

Good(s) or Service(s): Single-purpose tobacco detection canine with handler

Agreement period: Effective when executed and shall continue until Notice is provided by either party.

Fiscal Impact: None for the canine; $92,250.00 yearly for handler and maintenance fees, offset by revenue generated via tobacco inspections

Accounts: 007-818 Reimbursement to Designated Fund

Agreement Number(s): N/A

Summary/Notes: The Department of Revenue has been using a single-purpose tobacco detection canine to assist with enforcement of the Tobacco Tax Ordinance. The canine was provided pursuant to a Board-approved agreement with Altria Client Services (“Altria”). Altria no longer wishes to own the canine, and ownership has been taken by Allegiance Protection Group, Inc. (“Allegiance”). Accordingly, we submit this agreement with Allegiance for approval. Under the agreement, the County will have sole use of the single-purpose tobacco detection canine and a handler for a 40-hour work week. The County will provide compensation for the handler and maintenance fees on a quarterly basis.
