Summary: The Juvenile Probation and Court Services Department seeks approval for a contract with Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine to continue to operate and manage the Juvenile Clinic. Under the new contract, the Clinic will provide forensic clinical and other clinical evaluation services to assist the Circuit Court judges in legal decision-making and to assist court agencies in completing treatment plans for minor wards and their families involved in Juvenile Justice and Child Protection Division proceedings. This new contract also includes a mutual indemnification provision. Services will include:

- (1) Forensic clinical assessment and evaluation reports for the Court concerning youth, parents and guardians in juvenile court cases.
- (2) An array of consultation, coordination and referral services associated with or ancillary to such forensic services.
- (3) Behavioral health and wellness diagnostic services to assist Court agencies in treatment planning or otherwise to help youth access care.
- (4) Juvenile Court stakeholder training services.

Northwestern is recommended for the contract based upon a Request for Proposal (RFP) process, conducted in accordance with Cook County Procurement Code. The award is based on established evaluation criteria.
