Summary: The Department of Transportation and Highways respectfully requests approval of the proposed Contract between the County and Pan-Oceanic Engineering Co., Inc., Chicago, Illinois. This contract provides for various improvements. Improvement includes the reconstruction of deteriorated roadways, providing an urban cross-section with closed drainage system; add a left turn lane for side streets and driveways; provide improved pedestrian and bicycle facilities via new sidewalks on 175th Street and Ridgeland Avenue, on-street bike lanes along 175th Street west of Ridgeland Avenue, and off-street multi-use path along Ridgeland Avenue; and, lower the road's profile to eliminate the ditches/swales for easier maintenance and improved drainage in Tinley Park, Cook County.

This contract is awarded pursuant to a publicly advertised Invitation for Bid (IFB) in accordance with the Cook County Procurement Code. Pan-Oceanic Engineering Co., Inc. was the lowest, responsive, responsible bidder.
