Summary: The Department of Transportation and Highways respectfully requests approval of the proposed intergovernmental agreement amendment to an agreement between the County and the Village of Evergreen Park. The original agreement was approved by this honorable body at the Cook County Board Meeting in October of 2019. The agreement is to be amended now for additional funding to be added. The new amount added to the agreement is $150,000.00. The additional funds will go towards the continuation of the Village's 2019 Street Patching Program for various locations throughout the Village. The additional funds will show the reflection of $350,000.00 in total being appropriated towards the project.
