	A RESOLUTION HONORING DISTRICT 214'S INNOVATIVE STUDENT SERVICES
	WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic caused challenging circumstances for schools and students; and
	WHEREAS, school administrators, teachers, and school staff worked tirelessly to continue to provide quality schooling and support for their students; and
	WHEREAS, District 214 was committed to providing innovation solutions to support their students; and
	WHEREAS, as classes began to return to in-person learning and a hybrid model of teaching was adopted, District 214 wanted to provide flexibility and access for students to attend classes and activities; and
	WHEREAS, District 214 Purchasing and Transportation Supervisor Nicole Hansen approached the challenge of students needing to only come to in-person for part of the school day in an unique way; and
	WHEREAS, District 214 decided to run buses regularly throughout the day on fixed routes that would allow for students to get to and from school with a flexible schedule; and
	WHEREAS, the new approach, inspired by public transportation, runs 65 shuttles to serve about 12,000 students in an area of almost 70 square miles; and
	WHEREAS, this cost-neutral alternative was so creative that it won a Tyler Award, given by the company that provides software to make this approach possible; and
	WHEREAS, the innovative spirit of this project and dedication to meeting their students' needs represents the commitment and compassion that District 214 has for providing the very best opportunities for their students, even in the most challenging of times; and
	THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the Cook County Board of Commissioners do hereby honor District 214 for their perseverance and ingenuity during the COVID-19 pandemic; and
Sponsors:	BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that suitable copies of this resolution are presented to District 214 leadership and District 214 Purchasing and Transportation Supervisor Nicole Hansen. KEVIN B. MORRISON
