Summary: This is a request to increase purchasing authority and exercise the first one-year renewal on the enterprise SHI software and services reseller contract. This contract is used by all County agencies to procure software, product support and maintenance, and professional services. This is not a request for additional funding as each agency utilizes funds from its annual budget for these procurements.

The original contract was awarded through a competitive Request for Proposal (RFP) process in accordance with the Cook County Procurement Code. SHI was awarded based on established evaluation criteria.
