

Board of Commissioners of Cook County

118 North Clark Street
Chicago, IL

Legislation Details (With Text)

File #:	22-4001	Version:	1	Name:	Honoring the Years of Service & Dedication of CFO Ammar M. Rizki
Type:	Consent Calendar Resolution	Status:			Approved
File created:	6/15/2022	In control:			Board of Commissioners
On agenda:	6/16/2022	Final action:			6/16/2022
Title:	PROPOSED RESOLUTION

HONORING THE YEARS OF SERVICE AND DEDICATION OF AMMAR M. RIZKI

WHEREAS, Ammar M. Rizki proudly served as Chief Financial Officer of Cook County starting in June 2017 overseeing the financial operations of the County that include an $8 billion annual budget, $3 billion debt portfolio and $1.5 billion in federal pandemic relief funds; and

WHEREAS, Ammar previously served as deputy chief financial officer for almost four years. In that role, he worked to ensure that County's debt and pension obligations grew no more than 2%, ensuring manageable growth without unnecessary burden on County operations; and

WHEREAS, in his time with the County, Ammar helped spearhead dramatic improvements to the county's finances and pension funding. Under his leadership, Cook County has paid nearly $2 billion above the state's statutory payment formula, decreased outstanding debt by over $700 million in the last ten years and received the County's first bond rating upgrade in over a decade; and

WHEREAS, Ammar recently provided financial and operational input on the establishment of the County's Equity and Inclusion Fund, which is a part of Cook County's equity-based investments totaling over $100 million. This equity fund aims to create safe, healthy, and thriving communities in Cook County by reimagining and transforming systems around justice, public safety, health, housing, economic opportunity, community development, and social services to benefit Black and Brown communities and proactively invest resources to achieve equitable outcomes; and

WHEREAS, Ammar also helped develop a first-of-its-kind equity model used to award over $51 million of coronavirus relief to local governments. The award-winning program provided relief to local municipalities through an equitable lens, with factors that included, but that were not limited to, immediate needs of the municipality to respond to the pandemic, municipal population, municipal median income and municipal public health statistics; and

WHEREAS, Ammar started his work for Cook County in 2010 as deputy revenue director, where he led initiatives to modernize the Department of Revenue's operations, improve tax compliance and increase taxpayer education. Prior to that he held a number of managerial and analytic roles in banking and investment management; and

WHEREAS, outside of his County work, Ammar is quick to volunteer his time and is a proud member of the Northbrook/Glenview School District 30 Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, Ammar has always been quick to dispense fashion advice in addition to financial advice and Cook County has benefited from this combination of substance and style; and

WHEREAS, Ammar is leaving the County for the exciting and important opportunity to serve as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Obama Foundation where he will undoubtedly thrive as he guides the foundation's finances as it creates jobs, drives economic opportunities, empowers the leaders of tomorrow and fosters meaningful change throughout our region; and

WHEREAS, Ammar will surely be missed as he has been an indispensable resource, fountain of fiscal knowledge, mentor to many and thoughtful chief financial officer who has worked tirelessly to improve the County's financial position; and

WHEREAS, Ammar should be immensely proud of his numerous professional accomplishments, but he would tell you that his most important work is as a father to his son and daughter, and husband to his wife, Sonia; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners, hereby honor and recognize Ammar M. Rizki for his work on behalf of the residents of Cook County; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be tendered to Ammar M. Rizki as a means of communicating our appreciation.

Sponsors: TONI PRECKWINKLE (President), JOHN P. DALEY, DEBORAH SIMS, LARRY SUFFREDIN, PETER N. SILVESTRI, BRIDGET GAINER, DENNIS DEER, LUIS ARROYO JR, STANLEY MOORE, SEAN M. MORRISON, BILL LOWRY, BRANDON JOHNSON, DONNA MILLER, FRANK J. AGUILAR, ALMA E. ANAYA, BRIDGET DEGNEN, KEVIN B. MORRISON, SCOTT R. BRITTON

Indexes:

Code sections:

Attachments:

Date	Ver.	Action By	Action	Result
6/16/2022	1	Board of Commissioners	approve	Pass

PROPOSED RESOLUTION

HONORING THE YEARS OF SERVICE AND DEDICATION OF AMMAR M. RIZKI

WHEREAS, Ammar M. Rizki proudly served as Chief Financial Officer of Cook County starting in June 2017 overseeing the financial operations of the County that include an $8 billion annual budget, $3 billion debt portfolio and $1.5 billion in federal pandemic relief funds; and

WHEREAS, Ammar previously served as deputy chief financial officer for almost four years. In that role, he worked to ensure that County's debt and pension obligations grew no more than 2%, ensuring manageable growth without unnecessary burden on County operations; and

WHEREAS, in his time with the County, Ammar helped spearhead dramatic improvements to the county's finances and pension funding. Under his leadership, Cook County has paid nearly $2 billion above the state's statutory payment formula, decreased outstanding debt by over $700 million in the last ten years and received the County's first bond rating upgrade in over a decade; and

WHEREAS, Ammar recently provided financial and operational input on the establishment of the County's Equity and Inclusion Fund, which is a part of Cook County's equity-based investments totaling over $100 million. This equity fund aims to create safe, healthy, and thriving communities in Cook County by reimagining and transforming systems around justice, public safety, health, housing, economic opportunity, community development, and social services to benefit Black and Brown communities and proactively invest resources to achieve equitable outcomes; and

WHEREAS, Ammar also helped develop a first-of-its-kind equity model used to award over $51 million of coronavirus relief to local governments. The award-winning program provided relief to local municipalities through an equitable lens, with factors that included, but that were not limited to, immediate needs of the municipality to respond to the pandemic, municipal population, municipal median income and municipal public health statistics; and

WHEREAS, Ammar started his work for Cook County in 2010 as deputy revenue director, where he led initiatives to modernize the Department of Revenue's operations, improve tax compliance and increase taxpayer education. Prior to that he held a number of managerial and analytic roles in banking and investment management; and

WHEREAS, outside of his County work, Ammar is quick to volunteer his time and is a proud member of the Northbrook/Glenview School District 30 Board of Education; and

WHEREAS, Ammar has always been quick to dispense fashion advice in addition to financial advice and Cook County has benefited from this combination of substance and style; and

WHEREAS, Ammar is leaving the County for the exciting and important opportunity to serve as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer Obama Foundation where he will undoubtedly thrive as he guides the foundation's finances as it creates jobs, drives economic opportunities, empowers the leaders of tomorrow and fosters meaningful change throughout our region; and

WHEREAS, Ammar will surely be missed as he has been an indispensable resource, fountain of fiscal knowledge, mentor to many and thoughtful chief financial officer who has worked tirelessly to improve the County's financial position; and

WHEREAS, Ammar should be immensely proud of his numerous professional accomplishments, but he would tell you that his most important work is as a father to his son and daughter, and husband to his wife, Sonia; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the President and the Cook County Board of Commissioners, hereby honor and recognize Ammar M. Rizki for his work on behalf of the residents of Cook County; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a suitable copy of this Resolution be tendered to Ammar M. Rizki as a means of communicating our appreciation.